Defeats Navy Brass

Woman Scolded for Her 'Off Duty' Service

New York —A woman clerk at a service hospital has rubbed a little lustre off some high navy brass.

Miss Anna Wasylikow, 39, is a civilian clerk-stenographer at the St. Albans Naval hospital in Queens. Last July 31 around 4:30 p.m. — the office's official closing time — the telephone rang. She answered it. It was a requisition request, and she left a memo for the proper authority.

A few days later a superior demanded to know why she answered the telephone while "off duty." Miss Wasylikow said she didn't remember whether it was a minute before 4:30 or a minute or two after. But since she was there, she said, she considered it proper to answer the phone.

Came the official reprimand: "You are hereby officially warned for failure to carry out instructions on July 31, 1958. A repetition of this offense within one year may result in applications of higher penalties."

Miss Wasylikow was burned up. She filed an appeal. It was denied. She was told she was "guilty of insubordination." The lady went out and got herself a lawyer, Samuel Resnicoff.

Miss Wasylikow, who resides in Floral Park, N.Y., has worked at the hospital for 14 years. She has had one promotion, and this reprimand was a blot on her record and a blow to her sense of justice.

Resnicoff filed a brief with Sec. of the Navy Gates, the court of last resort. In part, his brief said "answering the telephone is automatic reflex" and that the punishment "borders on sheer futility."

Yesterday the navy spiked somebody's guns. The order came through to "expunge" the reprimand from Miss Wasylikow's record.

Bill Would Let Counties Change Setups

Would Enable Them
To Drop Board
System if Desired

Madison —A Wisconsin counties would be able to abandon the traditional county board form of government and set up another geared to their desires under terms of a resolution offered in the assembly today.

For the resolution to be effective the state constitution would have to be amended. This requires approval of two legislatures and a referendum.

The resolution was introduced by Assemblyman Ewald Schmeichel, Two Rivers Republican.

It was the only piece of legislation introduced as the assembly met in an informal session attended by speaker George Molinaro, Kenosha Democrat, and three other members. When a session is informal a roll call is not taken and no business is transacted. Bills and resolutions can be introduced and they follow the routine of being sent to a committee for a hearing later.

Up to Voters

Schmeichel's resolution would empower the legislature to define the types of government that could be instituted if residents of a county desired a change.

A city-county arrangement is one type that could be included. Setting up an office of a county manager would be another.

Officers could be appointed instead of elected. The resolution, however, calls for retention of the present method for electing district attorneys and clerks of circuit courts.

Two bills by Sen. Reuben LaFave, Oconto Republican, were introduced in the senate which also met in an informal session.

One is intended to discourage bomb scare pranks in schools.

The second bill would give teachers who initially rejected joint state-federal social security benefits another chance to get into the program.

LaFave said about 9,000 teachers rejected the program when it was put to a vote in 1957. He said many have since reconsidered and would like to participate.

Both houses of the legislature will reconvene Tuesday.

Atlas Fails to Go
Intended Distance

Cape Canaveral, Fla. —A powerful Atlas missile has apparently failed to go the full route on the latest attempt to break the intercontinental range barrier.

The 80-foot war rocket soared off on what appeared to be a perfect start but today 10 hours later there still was no official report on the results.

Revolutionary Regime Seeks Good Relations With This Country

BY LARRY ALLEN

Havana —A Cuban hailed Fidel Castro today for his warning against U.S. meddling in the revolutionary war crimes trials.

Newspapers gave it front page play along with a declaration by Assistant Sec. of State Roy Rubottom that the United States is not going to intervene.

Both Castro and Provisional President Manuel Urrutia said Cuba wants cordial relations with its big neighbor to the north, but not at the price of halting executions because of American criticism.

Fresh shootings brought the death roll of the firing squads to 200.

A man who served as a policeman during Fulgencio Batista's regime was executed near Trinidad, in central Las Villas province. Two more were killed at Holguin, in easternmost Oriente province.

Castro warned yesterday against any U.S. intervention to stop executions ordered by military courts for murder and torture during Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship.

"If the United States comes here, we will make trenches in the streets," the rebel leader told the Havana Rotary club. The state department said in Washington that American policy was "strictly one of nonintervention in Cuban domestic affairs."

Noting some U.S. congressional protests to the executions, Assistant Sec. of State Roy Rubottom said, "We are not going to intervene in what is essentially Cuba's affairs."

To avoid misunderstanding, the U.S. Navy canceled previous plans for 3,000 U.S. marines en route to maneuvers near Puerto Rico to stop at the American navy base at Guantanamo bay, Cuba. The base is at the opposite end of the island from Havana.

Castro earlier yesterday, in remarks in passing to a group in his hotel lobby, had said that if marines are sent to Cuba "200,000 Gringos will die." Gringo is the derogatory Latin American term for U.S. citizens, of whom there are 12,000 living in Cuba.

No Cuban Protest

Castro later told the Rotary club he had not realized this comment would be published but he stood by it.

In a related vein, Provisional President Manuel Urrutia said in a TV broadcast:

"I do not believe the North American people would support intervention in Cuba. I believe that we should maintain the most cordial relations with the United States, but without admitting impositions. . . I have not received any protests from Cubans about injustice in the trials of war criminals."

Urrutia said further that his government proposes to seek revision of international rules on the rights of asylum to prevent "war criminals" from enjoying this privilege.

Urrutia said "Submit."

The rebel chief's vision of U.S. troops landing in Cuba apparently stemmed from demands by critics in the U.S. congress that the United States do something to stop the Cuban firing squads. One of the loudest of these critics, Rep. Wayne Hays (D-Ohio), said yesterday he meant economic retaliation, not the sending of troops.

"We want good relations with the United States—yes. But submission—no," Castro told the Rotary club.

The execution of what the revolutionary regime calls war criminals will continue, Castro said, "cost what it costs." He asserted all exe-

Waupaca —Robert Thackery, 42, Rural, was killed instantly when he was thrown from his car after it went out of control on a Highway 49 curve three miles north of Waupaca during a snowstorm about 6:45 p.m. Thursday.

He was the first highway fatality of the year in Waupaca county. His death raised the state toll to 22, compared with 25 for this date a year ago. Dr. Sam Salan, county coroner, said Thackery died of a skull fracture.

Pinned Under Car

According to Sheriff Ray Abrahamson, Thackery was traveling south and apparently missed the curve. The station wagon traveled 90 feet on the shoulder of the road before striking a large rock and turning over.

Thackery was thrown out

Mikoyan and Dulles Confer For Over 2 Hours

Washington —Anastase I. Mikoyan and Sec. of State Dulles conferred for more than two hours today on U.S. - Soviet differences. They arranged for another meeting in the late afternoon.

The deputy premier of the Soviet Union said he and Dulles had had "an exchange of views on questions of particular interest to our two countries."

The only thing Mikoyan would say to reporters as he left the forenoon meeting was that the discussions would be resumed at 4 p.m.

From the state department, Mikoyan was hurrying to the capitol for a luncheon with members of the senate foreign relations committee.

Ejects Self From His Jet By Accident

Oakland, Calif. —Lt. Cmdr. Ralph Fielding shot himself head first through the canopy of his jet training plane at only 150 feet altitude. He accidentally had touched the ejection button. He escaped with a broken leg; no head-ache.

"It was quite a sensation," he said in Oak Knoll Navy hospital. "They said I landed only six seconds after I touched the button. It's almost impossible to say how I really did feel. I was saved by my nylon elevator"—parachute.

Prepared to Land

The chute opened automatically 14 seconds after Fielding was shot not more than 50 feet above the plane—an altitude of only 200 feet.

The plane was coming in for a landing Wednesday and its speed was about 150 m.p.h.

A representative of the Martin company which made the British-developed Martin-Baker seat said this was its first emergency ejection. An Englishman ejected himself in a demonstration the only other time it was used. The seat has its own propellant and its chute opens automatically and virtually instantaneously.

Fielding, a flight instructor with VF 124 squadron at Moffett field, near San Jose, Calif., was taking a refresher instrument flight with Lt. John B. McDaniell. As he turned control over to McDaniell, Fielding accidentally touched the ejection button.

Up he shot—and out—his head rest crashing through the 1 inch plexiglass canopy —just a few inches ahead of his crash-helmeted head.

Oil Workers Won't Strike This Weekend

Houston —The head of the oil workers union said there will be no strike this weekend by 105,000 refinery workers.

The Houston Chronicle quoted O. A. Knight, president of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers union, as saying by telephone from Kansas City that a 8 per cent wage increase offer by Standard Oil company had altered the union's plans.

"This offer is the first ray of light in 11 months of darkness," Knight said.

Seek Motive For 2 Bombs

California Woman
Twice Menaced
With Explosives

San Diego, Calif. —Authorities are wondering who would want to blow up pretty Mrs. Kathryn Morris, 33, with a bomb —and why.

"Someone with a definite knowledge of explosives and with a strong reason to kill her," says Police Chief Joe O'Connor of suburban El Cajon.

The brother of a man arrested in the case says he believes the bomber thinks Mrs. Morris knows who killed a Nevada gambler.

Chief O'Connor said there were only two possible motives —"money or love turned to hate, and she doesn't have any money."

Jack Silver, 42, San Diego pharmacist, who had been booked on suspicion of attempted murder, was arraigned on a San Diego police charge yesterday of illegal possession of narcotics, with bail set at $5,000. His preliminary hearing was set for Feb. 2.

O'Connor said the attempted murder booking was being dropped pending investigation by the FBI and postal inspectors.

Mrs. Morris, who is separated from her husband, has been the target of bombs twice.

The second bomb was in a Christmas package, never delivered because she had moved. The first was last Nov. 4 when a bomb exploded outside the apartment she occupied with her daughter, Tonya, 2.

Rebel Leader Fidel Castro Marks American criticism of his revolutionary government's execution of war criminals. He was speaking at a Rotary luncheon in Havana. Castro said if the United States attempted to intervene in the executions there would be 200,000 dead in the streets of Havana.

Flames and Smoke Belch from a warehouse at the Bear Creek Lumber company this morning. The wind-fed fire caused an estimated $50,000 damage. Officials said the blaze started when a can of hot contact bond adhesive exploded spreading flames through the warehouse—one of the firm's original buildings. There were no injuries.

Bear Creek Lumber Warehouse Burns

Exploding Can of Adhesive Sets
Blaze Causing $50,000 Damage

Bear Creek —One of the original warehouses of the Bear Creek Lumber company was destroyed by fire this morning. Loss is estimated at $50,000.

Bear Creek and Clintonville firemen were able to save a second warehouse about 25 feet away. It contained some $15,000 worth of lumber.

The yard is situated east of the railroad tracks that separate it from the main village.

John Dunlavy, partner and yard manager, said the fire started when a can of contact bond adhesive he was heating with a heat lamp in the unheated building exploded. The hot adhesive ignited the walls of the old warehouse.

Fanned by Wind

The fire, in the northwest corner of the building, was fanned by a northwest wind. Bear Creek Fire Chief Ed Reinke said the interior was aflame when his department arrived shortly after the alarm at 9:25 a.m.

The 140 by 36 foot, 2-story frame warehouse, built in the days of the old Welcome-Shi-octon Lumber company, contained plywood, roofing, wall tiles, packaged coal, cement, insulation and sheet rock.

Dunlavy said the loss was partially covered by insurance. He was taken to Clintonville Community hospital in nervous collapse.

It was the second fire at the firm in two years. The new office-warehouse was destroyed in a $74,000 blaze on Dec. 17, 1956.

The Clintonville fire department was called about 9:30 a.m. Chief Ed DeFrane said the second warehouse, about 25 feet south and at right angles to the blazing warehouse, was aflame when his department arrived.

A crew of some 35 to 40 bystanders started to unload the lumber stored in the second warehouse. Clintonville firemen were able to extinguish the blaze, but not before the wall was damaged.

The fire was battled by two Bear Creek trucks and three Clintonville trucks.

Youth Accused of Killing Parents

Sacramento, Calif. —A young man who was discharged from a mental hospital 23 months ago told police he shot and killed his parents "because they made me practice the accordion 8 or 10 hours a day."

Slight, sandy-haired David K. Sandahl, 20, was booked on two counts of suspicion of murder last night.

Sheriff's Capt. Harold Guer-in said Sandahl admitted shooting his parents with a .22 revolver. He was discharged Nov. 1 from DeWitt State hospital, a mental institution. He had entered the hospital in May, a month after the family arrived from Pontiac, Mich.

The father, Ewald L. Sandahl, 52, was a production engineer employed at the Aero-Jet Rocket plant and had worked on the atomic bomb at Oak Ridge, Tenn. His wife, Elizabeth Mae, was 55.

U. S. Expects to Put It to Use in Making Electricity

Washington —The United States has achieved a significant breakthrough in development of a small atomic device for production of electricity.

The White House announced the spectacular development, termed a major achievement by atomic energy commission officials.

Newsmen were told of it after President Eisenhower had conferred with John A. McCone, the AEC chairman. AEC officials, displaying a model at a news conference, said the device is capable of powering the instruments in a satellite, for example, for at least a year.

They said it would take 1,450 pounds of batteries to produce the electrical energy the new device can power without batteries.

The device generates heat, using a radio isotope — polonium in this case — and has no moving parts.

The device so far has been tested only on the ground. The AEC officials made it clear that it could be put into satellites shortly. They said it also has other potential uses, such as in the field of navigation aids.

Damaged B47 In Safe Landing

Tampa, Fla. —A B47 jet bomber with a damaged landing gear made a safe landing today at MacDill Air Force base in Tampa after a flight from Bermuda.

Wheels of the 6-jet bomber struck a fence on takeoff from Kindley field, Bermuda, last night. The plane was en route to the American air base at Nouasseur, Morocco.

The crew decided to circle the Meruda base until the wheels could be inspected rather than risk a landing. After a visual check was made, it returned to MacDill, its home base. The bomber is part of the 388th bomb wing.

FBI Seizes Suspect In Extortion Attempt

Los Angeles —FBI agents have foiled an extortion attempt against the producer of MGM studio.

They arrested 34-year-old Herbert Strauch yesterday as he sat in a telephone booth near the studio in Culver City and arranged to collect $100,000 from Sol Siegel, studio vice president.

Siegel said the man had threatened his life and that of his wife, Ruth, if he did not furnish the money in $100 bills.

The 35-year-old Siegel, a former newspaper reporter, was visibly shaken as he learned Strauch had been arrested.

"I never want anything like this to happen again," he said. Strauch told FBI agents he had never met Siegel but saw his name in an advertisement of a current movie a few days ago and had a sudden impulse to write a note.

Strauch, unmarried, was born in Germany, came to the United States in 1947, and became a citizen in 1952. He has been employed as a pantryman in a catering service that serves MGM studio.

D. K. Brown, FBI chief here, said Siegel received a letter from Strauch Jan. 11, threatening him and his wife unless they produced $100,000 within a few days. Brown said Strauch followed up with a series of telephone calls arranging for a method of payment, and these led to his arrest. They were made from telephone booths, so all booths in a wide area were placed under surveillance.

The FBI had arranged to be notified by radio when calls were made to Siegel. Strauch had not finished his conversation yesterday when officers arrested him. He will be arraigned Jan. 16. Conviction of violating the federal extortion statute calls for a penalty of 30 years in prison and a $50,000 fine.

Marshall Condition Satisfactory, His Physicians Report

St. Bragg, N. C. —Gen. George C. Marshall, 78, who suffered a slight stroke, is in satisfactory condition in a hospital here, his doctors said last night.

Col. G. M. Powell, chief surgeon at the hospital, and Dr. Henry D. McIntosh, a specialist on heart conditions and diseases, said that Marshall's condition continued satisfactory.

Marshall was stricken yesterday at his home in the resort town of Pinehurst, 60 miles away by highway. He was brought here by ambulance to the new Womack General hospital and was given a private room. His wife took a room nearby.

The World War II chief of staff, who also served as secretary of state and secretary of defense after the war, has lived a secluded life with his wife since 1951. It was then he retired—his third retirement from governmental service—as defense secretary.

Ike Will Use Veto to Hold His Budget Line

President's Message Expected to Urge Bipartisan Support for an Anti-Inflation Spending Squeeze

Washington —(AP)— President Eisenhower today was reported ready to make forceful use of his veto power if necessary to maintain the scant surplus in the $77 billion budget, he will send to congress Monday.

The message for fiscal 1960, which starts July 1, is expected to urge bipartisan support for an anti-inflationary squeeze on federal spending and closing of tax loopholes.

Eisenhower's target, administration sources have hinted, is to cut outlays to a level slightly above $77 billion. It is hoped that revenues will exceed that amount, although the margin may be only $100 million or less.

Bad Fiscal News

There will also be some bad fiscal news in the message, officials conceded — a slightly higher deficit than was anticipated for the current budget year.

Spending this year is expected to mount fairly close to $81 billion, instead of the $79,200,000,000 estimated officially in September. Much of the increase is attributed to the proposed $1,400,000,000 increase in this country's subscription to the international monetary fund, which Eisenhower recommended last week.

Revenues will have risen to more than $68 billion instead of the $67 billion officially predicted. But when the government year ends next June 30 the deficit reportedly will exceed by several hundred million dollars the earlier estimate of $12,200,000,000.

Depreciation of Dollar

Officials said mounting concern over the depreciation of the dollar, coupled with continued price itself out of world markets, has reinforced the administration's decision to make a strong stand against deficit financing.

Administration aides suggested Eisenhower will use the carrot-and-stick technique to win cooperation from the Democratic congress.

He dangled the carrot in his state of the union message—the hope that some tax relief may be possible in fiscal 1961 if the budget line is held in 1960.

Famed Louis Spray Muskies Trophies Destroyed in Fire

Rice Lake, Wis. —(AP)— Six trophy muskies, valued at $15,000 by owner Louis Spray of Rice Lake, were destroyed Thursday when fire burned out a 2-story frame building.

Spray said one of the muskies represented a 1938 record at 594 pounds, another was the top of 1940 at 60 pounds 3 ounces and the third was the biggest catch of 1940, 60 pounds 11 ounces.

The blaze was touched off by a defective oil space heater.

Difficult Situation

Baby Born in Airliner High Over Pacific Ocean

Honolulu —(AP)— Consider the difficult predicament of Shiu Un Lee, 22, an immigrant Chinese woman from Hong Kong.

Flying in an airliner, high over the Pacific, she was about to have a baby.

And there was no one around who could understand a word she said.

Happily, two nurses were among the passengers.

Miss Mary Blair of Hudson Falls, N. Y., and Mrs. Don Lego of Edmonton, Alberta, took charge to do what was necessary in the emergency delivery.

Slight Dent

The Japanese descended stewardesses aboard the Pan American stratoscruiser figured out a way to make a slight dent in the language barrier.

After other Chinese passengers proved unable to understand Shiu Un Lee's dialect, the stewardesses put questions to her in written Japanese language characters.

By this method the stewardesses and nurses kept check on the rhythm of Shiu Un Lee's labor pains.

Her son arrived about 30 minutes out from Honolulu on

Issue Warrant For Murdered Woman's Male

Charles Montague Charged on Basis Of a Photograph

St. Louis —(AP)— A first degree murder warrant has been issued against Charles E. Montague on the basis of a photograph made of his wife at a so-called party the night of Jan. 6.

The color photograph was snapped by an amateur who had used the complicated camera only once before—and was concentrating on another subject. It showed a profile of Mrs. Ruth Ann Montague, 32-year-old mother of two. She was wearing a large golden earring.

Thirteen hours after Mrs. Montague left the party, her body was found in her car, parked across the street from the apartment house where the party was held. She had been strangled. Her body had been mutilated.

She was clothed, but no earrings were found on her body or at the scene.

Found Earrings
Montague was arrested Tuesday for further questioning in the case. Officers said they found on him a pair of earrings which match the one shown in the photograph. They said Montague told them he found the earrings in his apartment.

Circuit Atty. Thomas F. Eagleton issued the murder warrant yesterday after viewing an enlargement of the snapshot. At the time, Montague was seeking a court order releasing him from Malcolm Bliss mental hospital. Police committed him on suspicion of being a dangerous person after Montague had won a court order Wednesday releasing him from jail.

Montague has been returned to the hospital. He is a ward of the St. Louis court of appeals until it rules on his petition for release from the hospital. If and when he is released, he will be arrested on the murder charge, Eagleton said.

Montague, 34-year-old laboratory technician, once was a mental patient in the Veterans Administration hospital at Danville, Ill.

Norman C. Anderson, Madison, left, and Thomas H. Browne, Waukesha, have assumed duties as new chief clerk and new sergeant-at-arms of the Wisconsin assembly. Both are Democrats and were named as that party took over control of the house. Anderson replaced Arthur L. May, Madison, and Browne took over from Norris Kellman, Galesville, both Republicans.

Community Rallies to Help Stricken Boy

Citizens, Airmen Join in Supplying Money and Blood for Heart Operation

Santa Maria, Calif. —(AP)— From time to time as Mike plays with his toys, the pain comes in his chest.

He knows, then, that it's time to go sit in a corner and wait for it to happen. It always does. Mike faints.

When he wakes up, he rests until he is strong enough to play again.

This will go on, physicians say, for perhaps another three years. Then Mike, now 4, will die unless he has an operation.

Heart Trouble
Mike has heart trouble. There is a hole between two of the chambers of his heart. This makes his heart work too hard. When it slows down Mike turns blue.

Doctors at St. Vincent's hospital in Los Angeles are going to patch up Mike's heart March 27. To do this, they'll need at least 60 pints of blood.

The going rate is $25 a pint. The hospital will accept blood in trade at the rate of two pints for each pint the boy needs.

The Santa Maria Times, after an appeal for blood donors, announced yesterday that 200 pints have been offered.

Most of the volunteers are men at nearby Vandenberg air force base.

The cost of the operation will be borne partly by the Crippled Childrens society, San Luis Obispo county. The rest is still being raised.

Mike's mother, Mrs. Lynne Pappas, is divorced. She and the boy are living with her parents in nearby Arroyo Grande. She had to quit her job to take care of Mike.

Now a whole community has pitched in to help her.

Rogers Hopes Negroes Will Continue Efforts At Vote Registration

Washington —(AP)— Atty. Gen. Rogers says he hopes Negroes will keep trying to register and vote—even if they have been turned away in the past.

Those who have been refused voting rights are reluctant to try again, Rogers told a news conference. He added "I hope that Negro eligibility will get over this."

Rogers said the administration's new civil rights proposals to congress will include a request that the justice department be given direct subpoena powers in connection with voting investigations. He declined to say anything else about the program except that it will go to congress in about two weeks.

Explaining the subpoena request, Rogers said the department now can get needed records by going through a grand jury. But he added this implies a criminal prosecution, and the department would prefer to use civil procedure.

Post Mortem May Explain Fire Death

Livermore, Calif. —(AP)— Questions surrounding the flaming death of a woman, believed to be a navy nurse, may be partially dispelled today by an autopsy.

Sheriff's investigators and navy officers want to determine whether the Miss Mitchell burned body of a woman found yesterday eight feet from a blasted and burned car is that of Lt. (J.G.) Barbara Mitchell, 29, of Chicago.

The car was found near Livermore, which is 40 miles east of San Francisco.

Miss Mitchell, accompanied west by her aunt, was scheduled at 5 p. m. yesterday to board a flight for Guam from Travis air force base. She did not show, nor was her luggage checked in.

Her aunt, Mrs. Claire Carlson, has not been found.

Three sailors came upon the still burning body of a woman near a flaming car on busy U. S. Highway 50 earlier in the day.

The body of the red-haired woman was burned beyond recognition, as were the clothes except for navy nurse's shoes and navy gloves.

The car, showing signs of an explosion inside, was parked about 15 feet off the highway and at a right angle to it. The rear window was blown out.

Brando Wants, Gets Realism in Picture

Hollywood —(AP)— Actor-director Marlon Brando wanted realism in his jailbreak movie scene. He got it.

Slim Pickens, who plays a deputy sheriff in the film "One-Eyed Jacks," swung a rifle butt at the escaping Brando and connected. Brando suffered a deep gash over his right eye.

Brando's physician said the injury would not delay filming.

U. S. Unveils Intense War Against Mafia's Narcotics Activities

Income Tax Violations, Gambling Also Come Under Investigation

New York —(AP)— The federal government is making the Mafia and its traffic in narcotics a primary target in a nationwide war on organized crime.

Income tax violations, gambling and vice also are among spheres of Mafia activity to be dealt with.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers' special task force fighting crime is working out of offices in Washington, New York City, Chicago, Los Angeles and Miami.

Veil of Secrecy

A 9-month veil of secrecy over the work of the anti-crime task force was lifted a little yesterday when the government started contempt proceedings against an alleged "Don," or leader, of the Mafia.

The government complained that he refused to answer questions about the Mafia, the worldwide band of criminals and terrorists which has its roots in Sicily many years ago.

The questions, asked before a special U. S. grand jury, were about the secret underworld links with the narcotics traffic.

The balky witness is Giacomo Reina, now serving a 5-year term for conspiracy and possession of narcotics.

Federal Judge Archie O. Dawson signed an order directing Reina to show cause why he should not be cited for contempt for refusing to talk before the grand jury. Reina has refused to answer questions despite a grant of immunity from prosecution on the basis of any testimony he might give. Reina must answer the court order next Wednesday.

First Indication

If Reina is convicted of contempt, he could be jailed after his present term ends and kept in jail until he answers questions.

Milton R. Wessel, supervisor of the attorney general's nationwide crackdown, had this comment on the move against Reina:

"This is the first public indication of the work the task force has undertaken and is an indication of the intensive drive we are now conducting nationwide against organized crime."

Names Negro To Court In New York

Albany, N. Y. —(AP)— A 36-year-old Negro has been appointed by Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller to the bench of the court of general sessions, Manhattan's highest criminal court.

Samuel R. Pierce, Jr., a Republican and former Cornell university football star, will fill a vacancy created last November by the election of Judge George M. Garney to state Supreme Court. Pierce will serve until Dec. 31. The state Senate is expected to confirm his nomination.

A judge will be elected to a full 14-year term in the November election. The job pays $32,000 annually.

Pierce was a Manhattan assistant district attorney from 1949 until 1953, when he became an Asst. U. S. attorney in the southern district. He served there until 1955, when he became assistant to the U. S. undersecretary of labor for a year.

He later served as counsel to the house judiciary committee's subcommittee on anti-trust.

Former Democratic Gov. Averell Harriman might have filled the vacancy before he left office Dec. 31.

However, Tammany leader Carmine G. Desapio and Harriman disagreed about whom to appoint. Tammany hall is Manhattan's Democratic organization.

Council Asked to Okay Richmond School Work

Time Important If Plan's to be Ready in Fall

Council approval of school board plans to build an estimated $103,000 addition to Richmond school will be sought Wednesday.

Members of the council's school advisory and finance committees at a joint meeting Thursday voted to recommend approval.

Architect George Narovec told the council committees the addition will include four classrooms, a library and a storage room. An alternate bid will be taken on a men's lavatory.

The addition, he said, will accommodate about 120 students.

Time Important

Time, said Narovec, is important since council approval, bids and selection of contractors will leave only about six months for completion before start of the September term.

The school board in March sought approval for a 4-room

Bill Concerns Bomb Hoaxes

Senator Proposes Legislation to Hold Parents Responsible

Madison — Parents would be legally responsible for juvenile school bomb hoaxes under legislation offered here today by Sen. Reuben La Fave of Oconto.

La Fave said he offered his bill as a result of the wave of false reports about bombs in schools which troubled public and private school officials and police departments in the Fox River valley and other Wisconsin communities in recent weeks.

He predicted the measure will be widely supported by schoolmen.

Under its terms, parents could be fined up to $300 for specified action of their children, including telephoned threats or reports about bombs in schools or other public places.

La Fave proposed to add a section to the act of two years ago which made parents liable for malicious damage caused by young people. He was also the author of the earlier legislation.

The legislator said he has had numerous calls about the possibility of new legislation since the consternation about school bomb reports which closed many schools earlier in the winter.

The bill will have public hearings before it comes to a vote in the legislature.

Cancel Marine March for Dimes

The proposed 100-mile march by two Marines for the March of Dimes, scheduled to begin Tuesday, has been cancelled.

Appleton Marine recruiters have been notified by their superiors that Marine corps directives prohibit participation of active duty personnel in non-service connected activities during on-duty time.

The march was intended to solicit funds for the March of Dimes in the Fox Cities.

Six speed races are planned including five dash events for various age groups and one distance race for boys over 14 years old. Separate races for boys and girls are planned for all events.

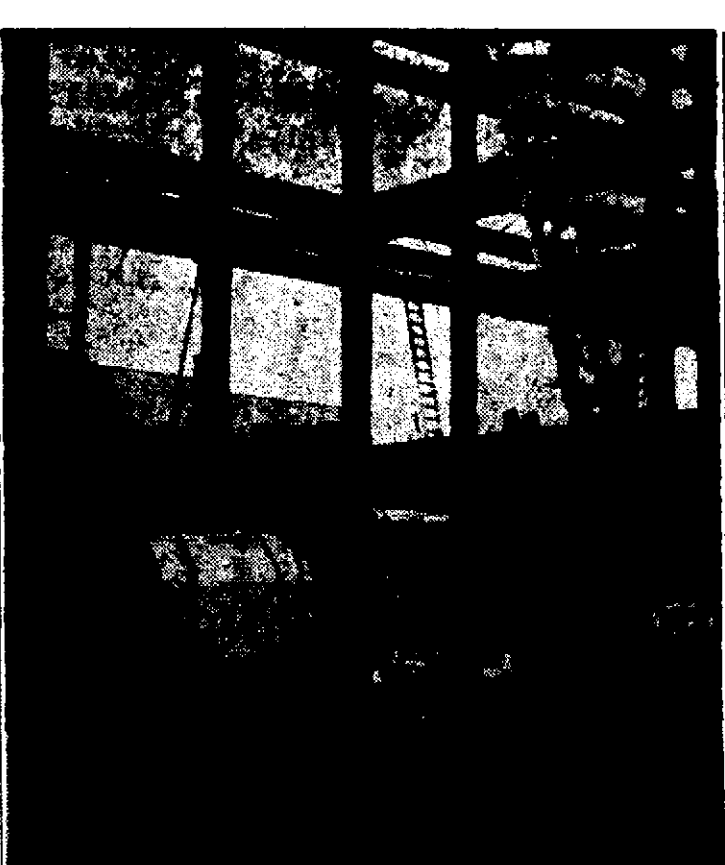

The midget race will be a 50-yard dash for children under 7 years. Both boys and girls will compete together in this event. A 100-yard dash is planned for children from 8 to 10 while racing the 100-yard event will be parents and judges.

and 12 years, 13 and 14 years and 15 and 16 years. Heats will be run only in speed races where too many entries are recorded for one race.

Novelty Races

The balloon race will be for youngsters 12 years old and younger and separate obstacle races are planned for students from 13 to 16 years. Obstacle races for the eight through 12 age group and mitten races are planned for the midget to 16-year old group.

Final event of the day will be a popcorn ball race for midgets through 16-year olds. Medals will be awarded winners in the speed races while special prizes will be given to the winners of the novelty races. Adults will serve as judges.

Pure Milk Manager Asks Behson for Higher Milk Price

Fond du Lac — Immediate action to support milk prices by an increase in the price of manufactured milk to $350 per hundredweight was asked by William C. Eckles, general manager of the Pure Milk Co., in a letter to Agriculture Secy. Ezra Benson.

Eckles said Benson's theory that lower farm prices would result in decreased production, lower consumer prices and higher consumption has not worked out.

Village Seeks Applications For Firemen

Kimberly — Additional applications for positions on the volunteer fire department are being requested by the village.

Although there are no vacancies that will be filled immediately, the village wants to have applications on file so they can be referred to as soon as a vacancy exists. In the past applications were sought after an opening was present.

Application forms are available from the clerk-treasurer at the Municipal garage. Each man will have to take an aptitude test which is given by the Appleton Vocational school.

Applicants must be residents of Kimberly and locally employed. They should receive a statement from their employer with permission to leave work when an emergency arises.

Minimum age is 21 years and after appointment a six month probationary period must be served.

Fewer Police In Appleton, Study Shows

Most Cities Same Size Have 1.58 Per 1,000; City Has 1.11 Ratio

Post-Crescent News Service

New York — Appleton has a smaller police force, in proportion to population, than is found in most cities of its size group; 25,000 to 50,000.

The continuing rise in the amount of crime in the United States has caused a sharper look to be taken at the degree of police protection provided here and in other communities.

Some light on the crime surge and on the forces that are combatting it is shed in reports by the International City Managers association, the department of commerce and the FBI. Their studies cover all municipalities with populations of 10,000 and over.

As of the beginning of 1956, there were 52 police department employees on the Appleton payroll.

Under Median

This was equivalent to 1.11 police employees for every 1,000 residents. It was less than was found in most of the other cities of its size, the median being 1.58 per 1,000 people. It was less, also, than the median for all the cities, 1.59 per 1,000.

Comparison is also made in the surveys on cost of police protection, which has been growing bigger and bigger, in step with the need for it.

According to Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers, the cost of crime in the United States for just one year is now about $20 billion. "It is second only to national defense," he declared.

J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI, bears him out, placing the crime bill per family at $400 a year.

Lower Spending

In Appleton, police department expenditures alone totaled $203,000 in 1957, the figures show. This was equal to an outlay of $6.27 for each resident.

Among the other cities of its size the outlay was $8.82 per capita. Nationally, it was $12.13.

Included in the cost figure is new equipment and all other expenditures except payments by cities into pension or retirement funds or payments to retired employees.

School Costs Affected by Many Factors

The old question of whether 1- or 2-story school construction is cheaper was put to Architect George Narovec Thursday by Supt. of Schools Mann for benefit of the city council's finance committee.

In substance, Narovec replied: "It all depends."

Mann said he was confronted with charges at recent service club meetings that 2-story construction is cheaper and that Appleton's newer schools are ornate.

"A 1-story school could cost more or less than a 2-story school," said Narovec, "because the time of the bidding and the amount of work contractors have are such big factors."

The Richmond school addition, Narovec said, is not ornate and doesn't include expensive stylings.

"Our buildings," he said, "are very straightforward and some of the features that are called ornate are actually economy features. There's certainly nothing in the Richmond addition plans that you could call expensive construction."

This, Too, Is Terrorism

Herbert Matthews, writing from Havana for the New York Times, says, "Those who fought against General Batista believed that they fought for liberty, democracy and decent government. It remains for the coming months to prove whether they, like their fathers who fought against the dictator of the 1920's, Gustavo Machado, have fought in vain, or whether a new era is really beginning in Cuba."

Pilot Escapes Plane Crash, Two Men Die

Aircraft Plows Into Ridge Near Connecticut Base

Ferretland, Conn. — (U) — A 4-engined air force plane emerged from thick fog yesterday, crashed into a hill and burned. Two men died. Its pilot lived.

The pilot, Capt. Letcher Williamson, 38, of Tucson, Ariz., said he was looking for a hole in the fog when the crash came.

The dead were identified by the air force as Lt. John August Flasch of Coyle, Okla., and Master Sgt. William L. Monroe, 37, of Leesburg, Fla.

Freed Himself

Williamson said he regained consciousness in the wrecked cockpit, freed himself and escaped through a jagged hole in the S-54's side. Then the plane was covered with flame.

Williamson received bruises and possible fractures.

The airplane was en route with another C-54 from Tucson to Bradley field at Windsor Locks, Conn., for re-assignment. The other plane landed safely. Williamson said his radio compass failed, and he asked the Windsor Locks field for aid in landing.

Orange Ball

He descended from the fog, he said, and the crash came. The crash occurred close to sunset near an army base in the Meshomastic state forest. Men at the base said they heard the plane crash into a thickly-wooded ridgetop. Then an orange ball of fire shot into the sky.

Capt. Williamson's statement about the crash was reported early this morning by Coroner A. Harold Campbell. Campbell quoted the pilot as saying the plane was flying at about 2,500 feet and that the ceiling was about 1,500 feet.

$10,000 of Attorney's Estate Goes to Friend

Milwaukee — (U) — The late Eugene J. Sullivan, widely known attorney, left an estate believed to be in excess of $75,000 and specified that $10,000 go to the woman operator of a restaurant in which he had an interest.

A petition for probate filed Thursday willed the $10,000 to Miss Marie Louts Fournier of Milwaukee, whom Sullivan described as "my beloved former partner and true friend."

The remainder of the estate was left to two sisters with whom he lived. Sullivan was 62 when he died Dec. 17.

Mikoyan Says Russia Won't Move Jews

New York — (U) — Anastas I. Mikoyan has denied to a group of U.S. Jewish leaders reports that Russia is about to force its Jews to migrate to Siberia.

The Soviet Deputy premier made his denial during a private luncheon yesterday with four representatives of the American Jewish committee.

The denial was made known by former U.S. Sen. Herbert H. Lehman, one of the Jewish leaders who attended the luncheon conference with Mikoyan.

Castro Defies U. S. Critics Of Executions

With the total of reported executions at 197, the provisional government acted belatedly yesterday to legalize the death sentences already carried out as well as those meted out in the future.

Change Constitution

A government decree modified the provision of Cuba's 1940 constitution prohibiting capital punishment. Death sentences now may be applied to "all members of the armed forces of repressive corps of dictatorship (and) of auxiliary groups organized by them or their confidants for crimes of a military character of those committed in defense" of the Batista regime. Death also was provided for traitors, "subversion of the institutional order" and spying for the enemy in wartime.

In his refuge in the Dominican Republic, Batista called the executions "perverse attempts to justify (rebel) crimes."

Batista called "a disgraceful calumny" statements of the provisional government that 20,000 persons were tortured and murdered between Batista's coup of 1952 and his fall two weeks ago. Most victims had resulted from "pitiless terrorism that the rebels imposed," the former dictator said.

yan and Soviet Ambassador Mikhail A. Menshkov.

Lehman told newsmen he had been authorized to issue this statement in behalf of Mikoyan:

"The reported plan for the re-creation of a Jewish state in Birobidzhan and the transfer of the Jewish population in Russia to that area is without foundation."

Lehman said he was "gratified" with the statement.

Irving M. Engel, president of the American Jewish committee, said: "We are gratified but the answer does not necessarily satisfy us; there is a difference between being satisfied and gratified."

Armstrong's Gospel Songs Full of Pathos

Lyrics Realistic but Reverent in New Album, 'Louis and Good Book'

BY HUGH MULLIGAN
AP Newsfeatures
"This train don't carry no gamblers
No crap shooters and midnight ramblers,
This train goes on to glory, this train..."
When Louis Armstrong wraps his foggy, foggy voice around these incredibly rollicking and realistic lyrics, the result is incredibly reverent.

For in "Louis and the Good Book," his latest Decca album, Armstrong demonstrates with power and conviction the tremendous pathos inherent in Gospel songs and spirituals.

The beat may be low down and bluesy, the lyrics stark and at times even racy, but the overall effect is always one of musical communion with a living, personal God who understands the foibles of man and prefers to talk to him in his own language.

Finest Album
In what undoubtedly is one of the finest albums of his career, Armstrong sings, chants and trumpets his way through a dozen gospel favorites like "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "Didn't It Rain," "I'm On My Way Now," "Down By the Riverside."

The lasting debt that jazz owes to Gospel music is always apparent in Armstrong's presentation, but he never reverts to a real jazz style, preferring to stick closely to the original slow beat of the music.

As always, Louis' trumpet solos are impromptu masterpieces of the moment that, were it not for records, would probably never be heard the same way twice.

His voice, which certainly must be the despair of all singing teachers, somehow never keeps him from becoming a fine singer, gifted with pace, style and great showmanship.

Good Backing
Fellow trumpeter Sy Oliver, a top arranger, directs a first rate choir and orchestra that give Armstrong excellent backing throughout.

The only drawbacks are Louis' occasional needless lapses into pop talk, but these are few and relatively inoffensive.

The Armstrong album is front runner in a growing collection of excellent hymn and gospel albums.

Other Gospel Singers
Mahalia Jackson, probably the greatest of the modern gospel singers and one who refuses to compromise her art by singing in night clubs, has two new Columbia albums: "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," mostly Christmas songs, and "Mahalia at Newport," which was recorded at last summer's jazz festival.

Also on a Columbia label the Mormon Tabernacle choir of Salt Lake City, one of the country's largest and most celebrated choral groups, sings a collection of new hymns and traditional spirituals in a fine album called "The Lord Is My Shepherd."

In a simpler vein, the Vestry choir, so devoid of complex harmonies that it may sound like your own choir back home, brings a calm, devotional style to "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning," "When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder" and similar evocative hymns in an album called "On a Clear Morning" (Warner Bros.).

The Back Home Choir of Newark, N. J., another show stopper at the Newport festival, shows why in "I Do Believe," RCA Victor's entry in the field.

Como, Ford, Andrews
Pops singers Perry Como in "I Believe" (RCA Victor) and Tennessee Ernie Ford in "Nearer the Cross" and "Star Chorale" (both Capitol) round out the picture with excellent albums of hymns and spirituals.

Actor Danny Andrews, whose father was a Baptist minister, has an album of Bible stories called "And God Said" (Capitol) that features a fine script by Dickson Hall, a musical back ground by the Frank Raye singers and several album pages of Gustave Doré's famous wood engravings. Doré's drawings alone are enough to make the album memorable, but Andrews does a first rate job on the narrations.

New York Dictates: Girls Must be Girls

'Rounded' Look Shown For Spring

BY DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

New York—The "rounded look," a view satisfactory to all Frenchmen, is the new spring silhouette launched by the house of Christian Dior in New York and designed by 22-year-old Yves Saint-Laurent, successor to the late Parisian designer.

The youthful heir to Dior's fame accentuates the slender normal waistline in practically all outfits in the new collection, his favorite line being a dress with loosely wrapped top, wide, rounded kimono sleeves, a wide, tightly cinched belt, and a slender skirt rounded at the hipline and tapered at the hemline.

Accent Tiny Waistlines

In the showing, attended by 200 fashion editors representing newspapers, radio and television stations throughout the country, there was no hint of the late and unlamented sack dress. Belts are worn in the middle, usually of self-fabric and at least three inches wide, pulled in to the last notch to emphasize the tiny waistline of the models.

With the new Dior dresses are worn big-brimmed hats, framing the face and creating an air of flirtatious mystery. With suits, high cloche hats with softly crushed crowns are shown, while small, flower-trimmed hats are worn with cocktail and dinner gowns.

Necklaces of iridescent tinted crystal match many of the dresses, being worn in massed strands at the base of the neck, choker style.

Trigere Shows Femininity

Showing of Dior's New York wholesale collection precedes by only a few days the Paris spring opening, which press and buyers feel will be the crucial test of the talent of young Saint-Laurent, proving whether he can successfully fill the shoes of the late dictator of the Paris couture.

Girls must be girls, says Pauline Trigere—else why do they need dresses?

The dynamic Parisian-born designer stresses femininity in every model, and brings back that American favorite, the fitted suit, with trim shoulders and a hip-length jacket.

Sleeves Add Width

Women need no longer look round-shouldered, if they follow Trigere's advice and buy spring clothes with the new width at the top. Her suits have wider shoulders than have been seen in many seasons, her dresses and coats employ various sleeve tricks to achieve width, and the whole effect is graceful, new and easy to wear.

Being a Frenchwoman who has adopted America, Trigere combines the Paris respect for feminine allure with the American demand for functional clothes. Her utterly simple, straight little black dresses can go anywhere in the world, at any hour of the day or night, with the addition or subtraction of accessories. For instance, a Trigere classic is the sleeveless black silk sheath, worn as is with jewels for evening, transformed into a daytime costume by adding a crisp white guimpe.

Capes Replace Furs

A new silhouette of the collection is the rondeau skirt, a diagonal flounce set low on an easy-fitting sheath. Another is "sideshow," a smoothly belted skirt draped up at the hemline on each side.

Trigere also shows a series of short cape-like stoles which smoothly around the shoulders, to be worn instead of furs. These are shown in brilliant colors or white with simple black dresses. This is called the "Paulinette" and is another device for achieving width at the top, as are the designer's "allegro" sleeves—elbow-length flounces flaring from a dropped shoulder line.

A Ruffled Eyelet Embroidered petticoat is revealed by this short black silk faille dance dress which designer Jo Copeland terms "Sophisticated Shepherdess." She also shows an evening costume in white chiffon. The dress has a jeweled midriff and floating scarf.

Costumes Have Male Appeal

New York—There's not a sack in a carload of New York spring fashions, currently being previewed by the nation's fashion press.

Champions of the female form divine include designers Jo Copeland, Oleg Cassini and Ben Zuckerman. The only holdout of the season to date is Larry Aldrich, who has been beating the drums for the "relaxed" silhouette for nigh on to five years and still shows it, modified but recognizable.

Designed For Romance

Jo Copeland, the all-American designer who claims she never has taken a single cue from Paris, shows a feminine, flattering and strictly elegant group of daytime and evening fashions, the latter planned definitely for moonlight, roses and romance. Most dramatic of her evening gowns is a full-length sheath of white chiffon with jeweled midriff and floating panels elegant as all get-out.

In a less formal mood is a short dance dress of black silk faille with a ruffled white eyelet embroidered petticoat, which is supposed to show.

Cassini Reveals Figure

Cassini, playboy of the New York couture, goes happily back to his figure-revealing creations with necklines as low as the law allows, insisting that "the bosom is here to stay."

"Women's dresses are supposed to appeal to men," Cassini says. "Now men look at fashion in a basically simple way. It's the shape that interests them. If they look at a woman and she has no shape—back in the sack for her."

Cassini aimed a few acid-barbs at the 1950 list of the "ten best-dressed women," promising to compile his own list the minute he gets time.

Ben Zuckerman shows a well-bred, discreet and wearable group of superbly tailored suits and coats, the suits all with short jackets and slim skirts. Notable in the collection is a group of simple and sophisticated black silk cocktail dresses with cover-up jackets, to convert them to 24-hour duty.

Your Problems

'Slap-Happy' Office Crew Finds Juvenile Pranks Enjoyable

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN: I came to this city from a small town in Canada three months ago. I considered myself fortunate to get a job in a good office in a fine downtown building. Now I'm not certain I belong here. Please tell me if my ideas are wrong or if I am working in a place where the people are peculiar.

Landers

Yesterday when I bent over to pick up an eraser, one of the young men hit me in the posterior with the telephone book. Everyone roared. This sort of thing goes on all the time.

Two weeks ago someone put a mousetrap in my desk drawer and when it snapped it almost scared me out of my wits. Yesterday an artificial snake popped out at me from the file cabinet. The office manager buys gags from a novelty shop, such as glasses with trick bottoms.

When I complained (after the telephone incident) they said I was a poor sport and had no sense of humor. Am I humorless or are all American offices like this one?—Small Town Girl

Dear S.T.G. All American offices are not like this. You fell in with a collection of Grade A dingbats. There's nothing funny about being hit with a telephone book—especially when you live in Buffalo where the book is pretty hefty.

I suggest you scout around for another job and leave that loony bin as soon as possible.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our 15-year-old daughter is unhappy. Because of her constant complaining, everyone in the family is in an uproar. She wants to quit school, get a job and live alone in an apartment. She claims we are too strict and don't understand her. We permit her to date on weekends and stay out until midnight. She says this is no freedom at all. We think for a girl of 15 it is a reasonable curfew. Is it?

She hates school and it's a daily battle to keep her from quitting. Sometimes I think it would be a lot easier on all of us if we gave her permission to quit. Your opinion would be appreciated. — Exhausted Mother

Dear Exhausted: Of course it would be easier to throw in the towel and tell your daughter she can do as she pleases. But where did you get the notion that rearing children was supposed to be easy?

Saying yes to your daughter's ridiculous plan, would

New Officers Presented to Missionary Unit

New officers were introduced to Women's Missionary society of First Assembly of God church Wednesday night at the church hall. Mrs. Allan McKellip, outgoing president, presented the Mmes. Wilbur Miller, president, Arthur Miller, vice president, John Poppe, secretary, and Arthur Bruesewitz, treasurer.

Mrs. Oliver Warner read from the Bible and talked on the meaning of Christian motherhood.

Mrs. Donald Warner was hostess chairman. The next meeting will be Feb. 4.

be a high price to pay for peace and quiet around the house. That girl belongs in school. She's a molar and you are responsible for her.

If you and your husband let her use 15-year-old judgment in such a vital matter merely because you're tired of fighting with her, then you will fall her as well as yourselves.

(P.S. Midnight is plenty late for a 15-year-old.)

St. Joseph Unit Honors Past Leaders

Past presidents of St. Joseph Christian Mothers society were honored at the unit's January meeting Tuesday night at the school cafeteria. Seventeen of the 22 leaders were present for the ceremonies.

Mrs. Anton Vanderloop, president, presented the women with a corsage and Mrs. Russell Femal, vice-president, read a poem in tribute.

The Rev. Kenneth Barnes, OFM, Cap., greeted the guests and spoke briefly. Several selections were sung by the boys choir.

District Four, under Mrs. Harold Moe, was in charge of the social which closed the session.

In Good Taste Offer May Be Made to Share Cost

BY EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently I attended a very large meeting in one of our big cities. After the meeting everyone left for home. Taxis were at a premium and after waiting for a very long time a man who was also at this meeting and his wife (both strangers to me) offered to share their taxi with me as we were all bound for the railroad station. When we arrived at the station the man paid the driver the amount that was on the meter. Should I have paid the driver too or should I have offered half of the fare to the man, or should I have just said thank you to him and left, which is what I did? This was an entirely new experience to me and I was at a loss as to the correct procedure to follow.

Answer: You should have offered half of the sum of the fare plus the tip to the man sharing the taxi with you. If he refused to accept your money you would not insist, but thank him for the ride and his kindness.

Wedding Toast
Dear Mrs. Post: I'm going to be called upon to give the toast at a wedding reception. The bride is a young relative of mine whom I love dearly. I'd like very much to do this nicely and would appreciate your telling me exactly what my remarks should be on this occasion.

Answer: You are not supposed to make a speech. Merely get up and after attracting everyone's attention you propose that they drink to the happiness of your beloved Alice and her beloved John. Or any similar sentiment.

Irving Berlin's Daughter to Wed Stockbroker

New York — Songwriter Irving Berlin's daughter, Miss Linda Louise Berlin, will be married in the spring to Edward C. Emmet who is connected with a Manhattan stock brokerage firm.

Berlin and his heiress wife, the former Ellen Mackay, announced the engagement Thursday.

Emmet is the son of Mrs. Watson C. Emmet, of New York and Paris, and the late Mr. Emmet.

The bride-to-be's mother is a daughter of the late Clarence H. Mackay, financier and industrialist.

Past Presidents of the Christian Mothers society of St. Joseph Catholic church were honored at the church cafeteria. Mrs. Joseph A. Weber, left, president in 1940 and 1941 and chairman of the sick committee, and Mrs. Joseph Schweitzer, center, 1911 president, receive corsages from current society head Mrs. Anton Vanderloop, right.

Doctors Campaign

Best to Eat Food: Sellers of Diet Supplements Called Quacks

Chicago—Americans actually have to go out of their way to avoid being well nourished.

Yet thousands of food supplement salesmen are trying to convince people that improper diet is to blame for most disease and that it can be cured by taking food supplements.

The food supplement business is a multi-million dollar one. It could be considered a "mildly amusing confidence game" except that it is also highly dangerous, according to an article in an American Medical association publication.

'Cure in Capsule'
It is dangerous because persons with serious ailments neglect proper medical treatment in the hope that they can find "a cure in a capsule."

Food supplements are pills, powders, pellets or capsules that often contain vitamins and minerals, usually in amounts far greater than the body needs, and some "mysterious ingredient" that is usually nothing more than a combination of dehydrated vegetables and plants.

The seven most popular pitches used by the self-styled "nutritional advisers" in selling their supplements are outlined—and refuted—by Joseph N. Bell, Chicago, in the article. It is part of a campaign being conducted by the A.M.A., the Food and Drug administration, and the National Better Business bureau to combat food faddism.

Selling Pitches

The pitches are:
—Most disease is due to improper diet. The fact: There are a few diseases caused by dietary deficiencies, but they are rarely found in the United States. By patronizing all departments of a grocery store, a person can easily supply all of his nutritional needs.

—Soil depletion causes malnutrition. The fact: The composition of the soil has very little effect on the composition of plants grown on it. If certain soil elements are missing, the plants simply don't grow.

—Chemical fertilizers poison the land and the crops grown on it. The fact: Extensive government research has shown that the nutritional value of crops is not significantly affected by the soil or the fertilizers used.

No Wonder Foods
—Wonder power of wonder foods, such as 100 per cent whole grains—cereals, flours, bread and crackers; honey; maple syrup; blackstrap molasses, or raw vegetables. The fact: These are good foods, but they are not wonder foods and do not supply any miracle nutrients.

—Certain types of cooking utensils, especially aluminum, are harmful to foods. The fact: The U. S. Public Health Service says hospitals the country over use aluminum cooking utensils. They certainly would not if research had given the slightest suspicion of danger from it.

—Processing removes nutritional values from food. The fact: Modern processed foods actually contain more nutrients than the same foods prepared by home cooking methods. Fruits and vegetables are canned or frozen at the peak of nutritional perfection, and flour, bread, milk and margarine are all improved in processing to supply known dietary requirements.

Best to Eat Food
—Subclinical deficiencies are a constant danger. The fact: This statement has no meaning. Subclinical means without symptoms. Normal tiredness or "a worn out feeling" is said by the peddler.

Pythian Sisters Honor New Chief At Dinner Party

Committee members for the evening were the Mmes. Russell Peterson, Wesley Wagner, Walter Bogan, Frans Vaurio, H. V. Brandenburg, R. N. Johnson, Allen Johnson and George Krueger.

to be a subclinical deficiency. If such feelings persist, a competent physician should be seen. They may be the forerunner of serious disease.

In conclusion Bell said, "If you suspect a diet deficiency don't let quacks prescribe for you. Consult your physician. . . . Eat sensibly, eat intelligently, eat economically—and for goodness sake, eat FOOD."

Visiting Nurse Says:

Child's Strong, Healthy Body Best Defense Against Illness

From early infancy, the protective shield of inoculation guards children against after using the toilet and before meals because some diseases are spread directly from the skin of one person to another, and germs can invade the body from hand to mouth as we eat.

3. Be sure that the water they drink, and the foods you serve are pure because some diseases come from contaminated food and water.

4. Take your children to the doctor for periodic check-ups because only expert supervision can offer the specific protection against disease which every child should have.

Author Blasts Suburban Move In Defense of City Living

BY W. G. ROGERS

Associated Press Art Editor

("Suburbia: Its People and Their Politics," by Robert C. Wood. Published by Houghton Mifflin, $4.)

Because of the rate at which suburbs increase in number and in population, according to Wood's reading of census figures, our suburbs are outgrowing our cities.

By 1955, the ratio of New York suburban dwellers to city dwellers was 5 to 7; Chicago, 2 to 4; Los Angeles, 3 to political leadership, cultural opportunity.

Then he asks his key question, whether "the qualities suburbia brings are more desirable than the ones it destroys?" Or at the root of it, "Why believe that the small community produces the best life, and more especially the best government?"

A suburbanite himself, who lives in Lincoln, Mass., and teaches at M. I. T., Wood severely condemns suburbia, and does so knowing that the average American, "wrapping himself in high moral principles," would profess to prefer an inefficient but democratic government to an efficient but less democratic one.

The small community has problems "altogether too big for it," he says; the suburban-subordinate community is small-spirited; it does not nourish individuality; it is a fraternity but not a society; it diverts our attention from the deserving demands of the metropolis.

He points out that the First Church choir is no match for the Boston symphony or its counterpart in other large cities.

This is a challenging defense of size—the characteristic which Americans have been accused of advocating at the expense of quality. But Wood argues boldly that the quality comes with the big city not with its anachronistic appendage.

2: Boston, 2 to 1; Pittsburgh, almost 3 to 1. That is to say, "One out of every four Americans was a suburbanite."

Sparking this flight to the small town near the city where we work—one of the greatest population movements in our history, says Wood—is the happy notion that small-town life provides more of the satisfactions implicit in democracy.

We own our plot of ground and home, we have an independence denied by the monster city in which we are lonely and lost, we participate personally in our own local government, voting on streets and sewers and schools.

Queries Raised
Then Wood begins to wonder, how can an uninformed householder know enough to vote intelligently on sewers or lights or fire equipment? Does the suburban community actually get the best, or the kind it needs?

He considers the complexion of the typical suburbanite—Republican, white-collar worker, with some education and more children than his city counterpart; he considers his endless problems—financing, taxes, commuting,

Gage, properties; and Eugene Clark, invitations.

The event is open to all men of the parish. Members of the Christian Mothers will serve the dinner.

Words often misused: Do not say, "The party who called yesterday left no message." Say, "The person who called."

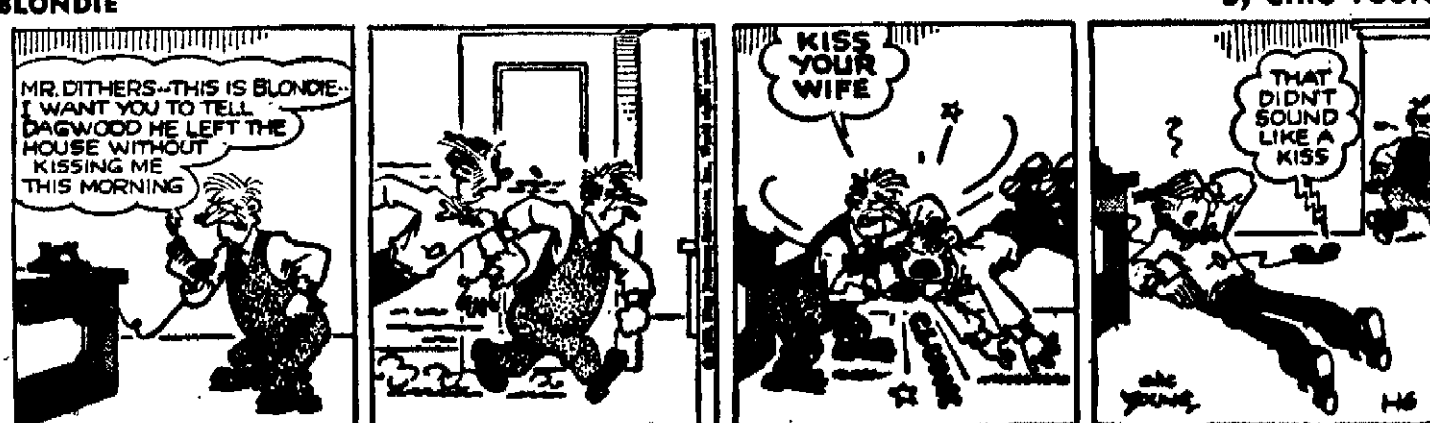

Often mispronounced: Via (by way of). Pronounce the "i" as in "high," not as in "vise."

Often misquoting: Commendation, two "m's" and two "t's."

This Sewing Basket Woven of String Over Cardboard Base

BY CAPPY DICK

If you have a grandmother or aunt who likes to sew, today's fun-project will interest you. By following the directions, you can weave a sewing basket for her.

All you need is some colored string, a piece of cardboard and a little paste.

The cardboard should be stiff. On it draw a circle six inches in diameter. Around it draw another circle, this one 12 inches in diameter. Cut the cardboard around the larger circle.

With a pencil and ruler, divide the disc into 16 equal sections as in Figure 1. Use scissors to cut along each line to the edge of the inner circle. This will create 16 tabs with slanting sides. Trim a little off each side of every strip and remove one of the sections entirely so only 15 remain.

Colored cord over a cardboard base makes a nice sewing basket.

Spread paste over the inner circle (which will be the inside bottom of the sewing basket). Beginning at the very center, wind the colored cord around and around to make a solid covering as in Figure 3.

Next, start weaving the string in and out among the 15 tabs to form the sides of the basket (Figure 4). Continue until you have reached the top of the tabs. Cut the cord and cover the entire top edge of the basket with cellophane tape to keep the string from slipping off.

GOP Puts Haase on Finance Committee

Caucus Leader Placed There to 'Watch What's Going on, Report'

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison — Assembly Republicans have tagged their youthful caucus chairman for membership on the legislature's key finance committee as a means of keeping posted on the financial plans of the majority Democrats.

The minority party members agreed to back the nomination of Assemblyman Robert Haase, of Marinette, caucus chairman. Democratic Speaker George Molinaro is expected to name two or three Republicans to the committee.

Assemblyman Frank Graess, veteran Door county member, put the question plainly when he said "we must have someone there to watch what's going on and report to us in our caucus."

The issues of taxation and finance are expected to dominate all others in the new legislature and will bring spirited clashes between the Democratic administration and surviving Republicans in the legislature.

The Republicans remain in control of the state senate, where they will probably have the power to veto any tax legislation of which they disapproved.

Gov. Nelson has already warned that tax increases are impending.

Most of the legislative Republicans regard the prospective tax program of the Democrats as the best opportunity for reviving their own electoral fortunes.

Legislative Sidelights

Budget Director Gives Tips on Expense Pay

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — Legislators have been given some friendly advice by Budget Director E. C. Gressell about filing their expense accounts for this first month of the session, which will have comparatively few legislative working days pending the organization of the house.

Assemblyman Richard Peterson of Clintonville relayed to the assembly Republican caucus Gressell's suggestion that the law makers file a prorated claim for expenses this month.

The law allows an expense account of $175 for a regular month, Peterson said the correct claim for this month would be $101.44.

Alfred Lauby, of Antigo, defeated last fall as assemblyman for Langlade, Forest and Florence counties, has landed a job on the legislative payroll nevertheless.

The former Democratic legislator has been named chief of the assembly document room by Tom Browne of Wauskegan, the new assembly sergeant-at-arms chosen by the Democrats.

Assemblyman Charles Schmidt of Milwaukee, one of the old timers in the Democratic assembly majority, has found his ambitions thwarted at every turn. He wanted to become speaker, but found only indifferent support. He was a candidate for the majority floor leadership, and was defeated in a caucus ballot. Then he sought the caucus chairmanship, and was defeated again.

State Sen. Frank Panzer of Dodge county, one of the powers in Republican politics, was elected president of the state senate for the seventh time this week. He has probably served longer in that office than any other man in the history of the legislature. The senate president presides whenever the lieutenant governor, the regular presiding officer, is absent from the chamber.

Some legislators are grumbling about the action of the assembly in increasing the membership of some committees. Capitol legislative committee rooms are so small that when 11 committee members crowd around a table there won't be room for witnesses or others who want to attend hearings, it is said.

The Madison club has become a more popular resort for lobbyists and legislators lately. The club extends its facilities to members only. More lobbyists and legislators are applying for membership, apparently preferring to be there after hours instead of in the public hostilities in the capital city.

Democratic Weekly Says Fight For State Control Continues

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — The Democratic party's campaign for the control of Wisconsin is a continuing one. Gov. Gaylord Nelson indicates in the first edition of a new weekly tabloid newspaper published by the Democratic state committee.

Nelson commented that "the problems we face are monumental after dry-rot state government for a quarter of a century. The reference was to the retired Republican state administration.

The first issue was liberally sprinkled with barbs at the Republican opposition, praise for party workers and officers and boasts about the qualifications and the goals of the party's new representatives in public office including Nelson.

"Wisconsin Democrats will be in virtually complete control of the state government for the next two years," the publication said editorially.

without an acknowledgment of the fact that the Republicans are in control of the state senate and can stymie Democratic legislation there if they choose to do so.

It also related that two or three Democrats have entered the crowded field of candidates for the state supreme court election next spring. They are Bruno Bitter and William Clark of Milwaukee.

Ask Increased Powers For Waupaca Court

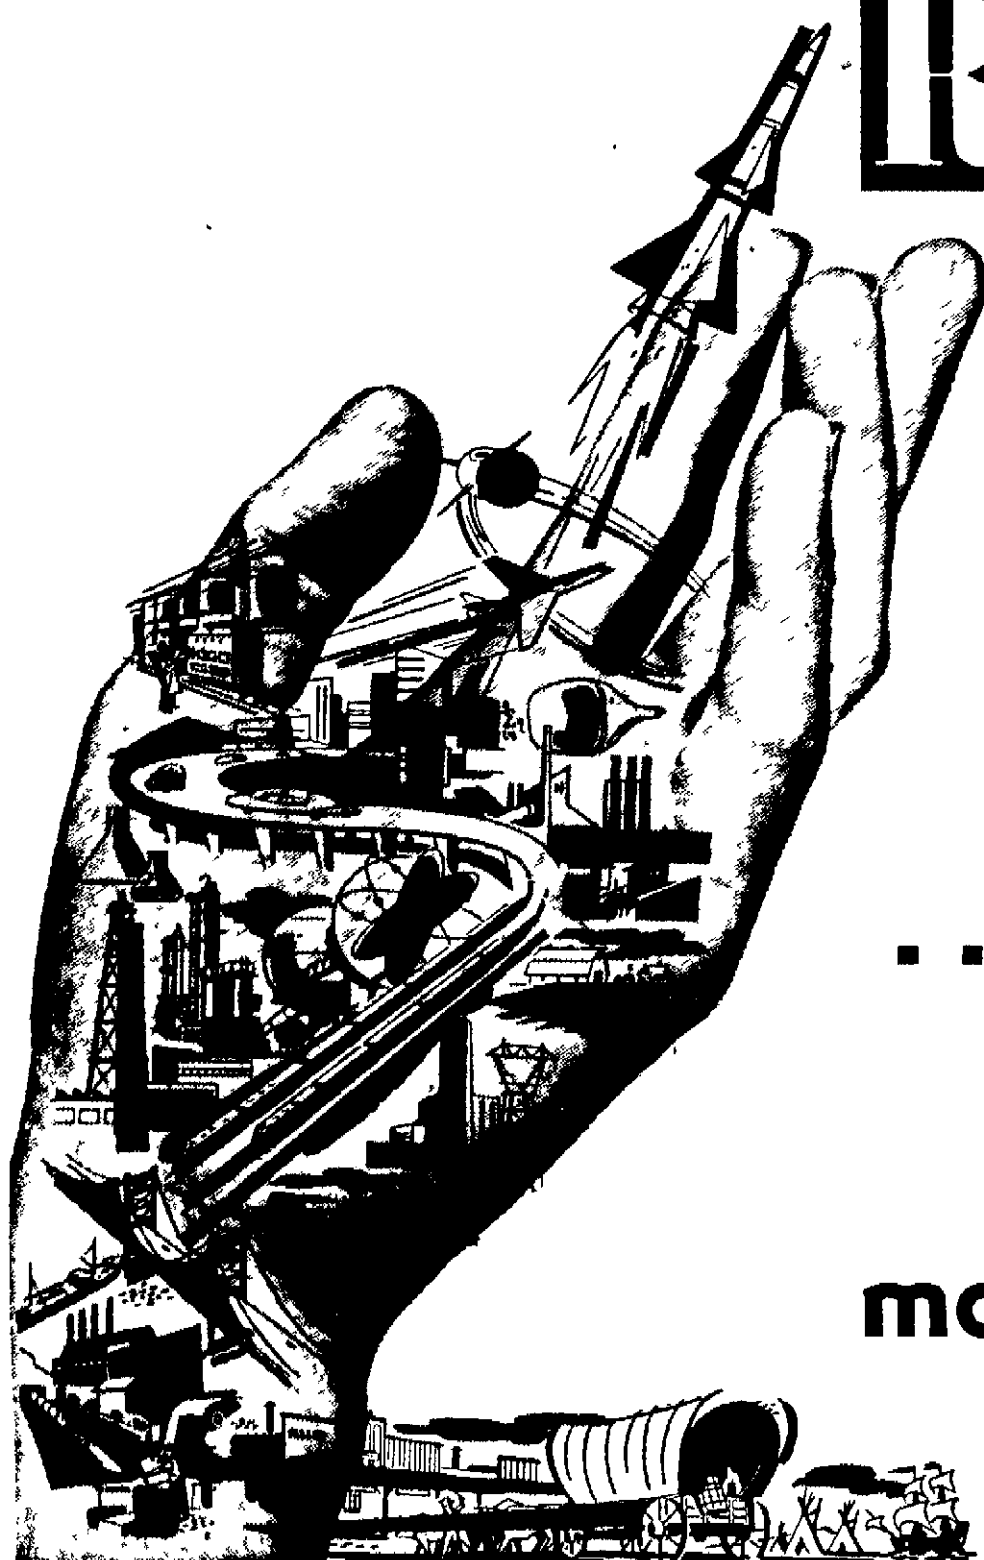

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — Legislation to confer criminal and civil jurisdiction upon the county court of Waupaca county was introduced into the state assembly Thursday by Assemblyman Richard Peterson, a Clintonville lawyer. Wendell McHenry is the county court judge.

"I'll do better for him," asserted Archie. "I'll give him $150,000 to fight me."

"What's more I'm willing to fight not only Cooper, but London a week apart to establish myself as the rightful contender for the heavyweight title."

Moore, who received the Edward J. Neil award as the fighter of the year for 1958 didn't mention Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, but it probably was just an oversight.

Jim Wicks, Cooper's manager, said today he had accepted the unusual guarantee of $150,000. The fight would be held in London, probably in June.

Central had a 9-6 lead after a low scoring first period, but things opened up in the second frame as the Shamrocks whistled in 22 while St. John was getting 19.

Bob Pecotte, the game's high scorer with 30 points, collected 11 of his markers in the second period as he led Central to the 6-point intermission lead. Gary Cook, Marinette team captain, made 22 points.

Central added two points to its lead by hitting 15 in the third quarter while St. John had 13. Seven of the St. John points were scored by Ady Ebben, junior guard who had 15 for the night.

In the last quarter, Tom Geerts scored eight of St. John's 20 points. Central had 25 to widen the gap.

Geerts finished as the Chutes' leading scorer with 20 points on seven of 16 field goal tries and six free throws.

Billy Hoelt Due For Another Cut in Salary

Denies That Zing
Has Gone Out
Of His Fast Ball

Detroit — Pitcher Billy Hoelt is another member of the Detroit Tigers due for a pay cut, but the big southpaw from Oshkosh, Wis., says he doesn't expect any trouble with General Manager John McHale.

This will be the second straight pay cut for Hoelt unless he can talk the general manager into the same contract he had for 1958 when he posted a 10-9 record and a 4.18 earned run average.

2 Disappointing Seasons
Hoelt has been one of the club's major disappointments over the last two seasons. He won nine and lost 11 in 1957 following a 20-14 mark in 1956 and a 16-7 record in 1955.

"I think something can be worked out," said Hoelt as he examined the contract McHale sent him. "I know I didn't have a good year. But I'm not too unhappy with the deal he offered me. I certainly don't plan to be a hold-out."

"From all I read and heard, I fully expected to be traded. But if they don't trade me it won't make me mad. I'd like to make a strong comeback and have a good season."

And what about the constant reports that the zing has gone out of his fast ball?

"I don't believe them," said Hoelt. "Just because I've been throwing a lot of curves they're calling me a junk pitcher. Sure, my arm didn't feel the greatest the last two seasons, but I'm sure everything is going to be all right this spring."

Nats Decision Lakers Near Second Place

The Syracuse Nationals were breathing down the necks of the New York Knickerbockers today in their duel for second place in the Eastern division of the National Basketball association.

Coupling their 111-105 decision over Minneapolis with a 95-91 defeat of New York by Philadelphia in Syracuse Thursday night, the Nats reduced the Knicks' second-place margin to two games.

Hoosiers are locked with Illinois and Michigan at 3-1 in the race. Illinois and Michigan as well as Michigan State and Wisconsin have Saturday respite.

Purdue (1-2) is at Minnesota (1-1) for a regionally televised afternoon contest and Northwestern (2-1) is at Ohio State (0-2) at night.

Strong Rebounders
Balanced scoring and the rebounding power of Walt Bellamy and Frank Radovich keynote the Hoosiers. Radovich is averaging 16.7 points a game and Bellamy 15.2. Between them they have retrieved 113 league rebounds.

Iowa has a 1-2 record in three starts against the conference's top-flight clubs. The Hawkeyes' top scorers are Clarence Wordlaw with a 21.3 average and Dave Gunther with 18.

The Gophers, led by Ron Johnson with a 21.5 average, should prove troublesome on their home floor against Purdue.

Purdue's scoring power centers on Willie Merriweather, who is clicking at 19.7, and Wilson Eison (15-6).

At Ohio State, Northwestern will face the Big Ten's leading scorer, Larry Huston, with a 25.5 average. Topping the Wildcats are Joe Ruklick with a 20-point average and Nick Mantis with 19.

(The hill, three miles north of Leeman, is near the junction of Highways 156 and 187. Spectators from the Appleton area can follow Highway 47 north through Black Creek to 156 and turn west then continue through Nichols to Leeman.)

Boros and Maxwell New House Lead 'Crosby' Field Bill Aims to Save Minors

Shoot 5-Under-Par 67s in Tournament's Opening Round

Pebble Beach, Calif. —

Julius Boros and Billy Maxwell, who both know well the way to golf's pay window, paced a packed field into today's second round of Bing Crosby's $50,000 pro-amateur tournament.

Boros, a former National champ, and ex-amateur king Maxwell both caught fire with a string of birdies on the second nine holes of Thursday's opening round to shoot 5-under-par scores of 67.

1-Stroke Lead
That gave them a 1-stroke advantage over U. S. Open Champion Tommy Bolt and fast-rising John McMullin. Nine others were deadlocked at 69. On that list came Art Walls, Dow Finsterwald,

Bolt, with singer Don Cherry, and Mike Souchak, with Bob Goldwater of Phoenix, were tied at 62.

The opening day's play also saw a hole-in-1. Pro Jim Ferree's No. 5 iron shot popped into the hole on the 160-yard fifth at Pebble Beach.

Maxwell, Knutson Lead
Maxwell, of Odessa, Texas, and his partner, Dr. Robert Knutson of San Francisco, led that category with a best-ball score of 61.

Bolt, with singer Don Cherry, and Mike Souchak, with Bob Goldwater of Phoenix, were tied at 62.

The opening day's play also saw a hole-in-1. Pro Jim Ferree's No. 5 iron shot popped into the hole on the 160-yard fifth at Pebble Beach.

Boston — "Bucky" Harris has reached what he believes is the goal of every baseball manager's job.

Harris, 62, who was succeeded by Joe Cronin as Boston field boss in 1954, Thursday was named to follow Joe as head of the Red Sox.

After 13 years as a major league infielder and 29 as a manager, Bucky spent the last two seasons as a special assistant to Cronin.

Harris learned of his promotion in a phone call from Cronin in Chicago where Joe had just been approved for the American league presidency.

Armstrong's 21, has won 22 matches, lost four and boxed one draw.

Aaron Unhappy With Contract

Milwaukee — Henry Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves says he isn't happy with the salary offer in his 1959 contract.

"We talked but the offer wasn't what I wanted," the hard-hitting outfielder said Thursday.

It was believed he was offered the same salary as for the 1958 season, estimated at $35,000.

"The next step is up to the Braves. Now, they've got to get in touch with me," Aaron said.

Post-Crescent News Service

Green Bay — Pro bowl side-light. There was quite a drama in the lower-left corner of your TV screen in the third quarter of the pro bowl game last Sunday, involving Packer Jim Ringo.

You remember West's Ringo flipped the passback from center over Detroit Yale Lary's head while he stood back to punt. East recovered on the West 7-yard line and Jim was about to be crowned king goat. East was ahead, 16-14, at the time and that "error" could have made it 23-14.

Threat Ends
The reliable and hard-working Ringo has been living right. Two plays later, that same Lary intercepted Norm Van Brocklin's pass in the end zone and East's threat was over; Jim was saved.

Now the drummer. West's offensive team rushed onto the field with Ringo in a tiny figure in the L-L corner, leading the parade. Big Ringo grabbed little Lary like a long-jest cow and gave him a big hug.

Ringo appreciated being removed from the goat's stall, and he repaid Lary with a hug before a record Pro bowl crowd of 98,000.

That was Ringo's second bad passback on a punt this 1958-59 season. His first was in Detroit Thanksgiving day and set up a field goal for a 10-7 Lions lead. When the Packers went on defense, Ringo practiced centering punts behind the Packer bench in Briggs stadium.

Wins Dinner
Later Jim smiled at the writer: "Go easy on me; it was the first I had since I was a rookie."

Jim had a few as a rookie in 1953 but he had less in 1954.

Lou Rymkus offered him (and the wife) a steak dinner if he went through '55 without a punt passback. That dinner tasted good to Jim (and the wife).

Hope you noticed that Bobby Dillon, who with Jim were the only Packers in the Pro bowl, brought down big Jim's my Brown a number of times with careful tackles. Brown is a killer at 228 pounds and sprinter speed; so a slight feller like Bobby must be careful.

Organize Bowling League for Blind of Outagamie County

Kaukauna — The first step in the organization of a bowling league for the blind or partially blind of Outagamie county was taken earlier this week when 12 persons from Kaukauna and Appleton tried their hand at the sport on the S and B alleys.

The alleys, balls, shoes and other expenses usually involved in bowling were donated by the alley owners, according to Edward Feldmann, Kaukauna, organizer of the group. Feldmann and other blind persons in the county knew of blind bowling leagues and tournaments held in the state and thought it would be a worthwhile endeavor to form such a group in this area.

Use Guide Ball

Twelve persons attended the first session, but more than that have indicated an interest in the project, according to Feldmann. Of the 12 who participated, five had to use a special guide ball as they were totally blind while seven had enough vision to see where the balls started but were unable to see the pins.

Additional meetings are planned along with future practice or learning sessions. Blind or partially blind can obtain information about the project by calling Feldmann's Blind Products exchange, Kaukauna.

While the partially blind and total blind compete together in regular league activities, they are separated for competition in the blind bowling tournament held at Madison in the spring.

Blind bowlers who had previously done some bowling helped as instructors while Miss Jean Hajek, Appleton, served as scorekeeper.

Simmons Shuts Out Red Wings

By The Associated Press

The Boston Bruins and the Detroit Red Wings, both of whom have been steadily sliding down the National Hockey league standings, were tied for the fourth and last playoff position today.

The deadlock came about Thursday night when the Bruins blanked the Wings, 3-0, for their first victory in five games and their third in the last 14 outings. Detroit has only one triumph in their last 13 starts.

Each has 38 points, four less than the third-place New York Rangers, and three more than the cellar-dwelling Toronto Maple Leafs.

Goalie Don Simmons turned back 28 Detroit shots at the nets in registering his third shutout of the campaign.

TUSLER'S OF APPLETON

W. Wisconsin Ave. at Mason St.

Time Out with Mike Drew

If the Seymour High school basketball team is able to win one of its nine remaining games, it will equal the best victory total since Seymour joined the Northeastern Wisconsin conference in 1950.

So far, Coach Ray Gulbrand's charges have won six of nine starts, overall. The highest number of triumphs an Indian club has been able to accumulate in any one of the past eight campaigns is seven (in 1955-56). Gulbrand's first year.

Good Teams

Gulbrand played for Denmark High against Seymour when the Indians were in the Little Nine conference. Ray graduated in 1943 and from Oshkosh State college in 1950, where he picked up a pair of basketball letters.

He turned out some good clubs while coaching at Laona from 1950-55.

The 1958-9 Indians jumped off to a fast start, capturing their first five games. Since then, however, they've dropped three of four.

Gulbrand has two important factors going for him in trying to counteract Seymour's recent losing ways—size and experience. His big boys are 6-5 Green Kahnt and 6-4 David Maas (both seniors), while junior Dick Gossie is 6-2 and junior Ron Johns 6-1.

In the experience department: senior guard Lynn Prellip is in his fourth year on the varsity while guards Larry Mory and Phil Heuser are putting in their third campaigns with Gulbrand. Prellip and Mory were 1-2 in team scoring last season.

But what the Indians have in experience and size they lack in aggressiveness, according to their coach.

Gulbrand says that this is the club's big weakness and one that could keep it from a 1-2-3 finish in the circuit.

In trying to counteract this failing, the coach has movies available of all of the Indians home games and he and his players spend a good deal of time looking at the "films." Most of the other NEW clubs are also taking movies.

Zollo Versalles, stated to be the Fox Cities Foxes' stop next summer — and Cincotrellas teammate Marv Throneberry (of the New York Yankees) hit homers in their club's 11-2 romp over Boer in the Nicaraguan league recently. A crowd of 5,922 watched the game.

Pete Reiser, who managed the Green Bay Bluejays last season, has been relieved of his job as skipper of the Cablinas club of the Occidental league. Cablinas wasn't winning under Reiser and so, while Pete was visiting in this country, he was notified not to return.

Reiser will manage a Dodge farm in the Texas league next season.

In a letter to Foxes Business Manager Bob Willis, 1958 skipper Pete Suder wrote that the club's 1959 manager Jack McKee "is a great guy and an excellent manager, and one the fans will like. I'm hoping that you have a good year in 1959 because you, the board and fans certainly deserve it."

Willis has had word from 1958 Three-I batting champion "Potato" Pascual who writes he's looking forward to playing here again next season.

The Lawrence college basketball team received a wire from Strangoener Hits 591; Nona Hupka Rolls 539 Trio

Werner Strangoener authored the loftiest threesome — a 591 — in Lahn's Fraternals league's latest edition. AAL No. 2 is his team. The Odd Fellows No. 2, squad (351 - 181) holds a 2-game league lead.

Elks Women's American league keggers were paced by Nona Hupka and her 539 for Schaefer Dairy. One of her singletons was a 194.

Lo Berg's 212 for first place Plank Dandy (36-15) was the honor singleton. She wound up with a 501.

In the Elks National wheel, Joan Leibold fired a 528 for Copa Cabana. Barbara Bohat check smashed a 194 for Arcade. Bretschneider (35 - 18) owns a 1-game league lead.

Other honor tallies in the American loop include: Lois Grassl, 197, 513; Rosey Erickson, 190. In the National wheel Helen Dessort shot a 191.

Wednesday bearing this message: "Go, Vikes, beat Rip-on." (signed) "Chopper." "Chopper" is Bill Wood, high-scoring guard on last season's club.

Kimberly-native Wood is now working in Gladstone, Mich.

The biggest pair of feet on the Viking ball club belong to 6-5 reserve center Dick Roeper. Roeper's size 13s look even larger alongside the size 8s of 5-9 Rick Ramsey.

John Van Meter, 6-5 Viking freshman cager, is deadly from the free throw line in practice. I've seen him make 25 straight foul shots and he's done better than that. But he has to go a long way to better the free throw accuracy of former Viking star Dick Kline.

Kline hit about 36 straight in competition and once made over 60 in a row in practice!

Van Meter is one of a relatively few cagers who can make a 2-hand "stuff" shot.

Fresh George Gray, though he's only about 6-0, also can "dunk" the ball.

Former Appleton Roosevelt freshman star "Chips" Moede is currently third in Milwaukee Suburban conference pointmaking with 97 tallies in five games.

Bob Hitt Leads All-Star Pin Tournament

3-Pin Foils Campi's Bid for Perfect Game

Buffalo, N. Y. — Lou Campi is philosophical about his 299 game in the All-Star Bowling tournament here Thursday.

"I just gambled and lost," smiled the Dumont, N. J., ace. Campi had tossed 11 strikes before the last ball hit the headpin full and left the 3-pin intact.

"I was just trying to make sure I hit the head pin. I made up my mind I would try to come in a little higher than usual. I just put a little too much on it, I guess."

19 Perfect Games

Campi has rolled 19 perfect stanzas, including the last perfect game in the All-Star. Despite his scoring splash, Campi was only seventh in the 16-man finals field.

Bob Hitt, 36-year-old milkman from Livonia, Mich., was leading the parade with a point total of 82.01. Hitt had won 11 of 16 games with a score of 3.551.

The end of the first day of the finals found defending champion Don Carter of St.

The win kept Roosevelt unbeaten and snapped a first place tie between the two clubs.

Menasha outplayed its host in the first half, leading 9-0 after one quarter and 19-16 at the half. The winners switched from a man-to-man to a zone defense at the intermission and grabbed a 28-24 lead after three stanzas. Their fast break began to click in this period.

Center Paul Lau counted the Jays' lone second half bucket in the third quarter. Roosevelt rang up a 17-2 point edge in the final stanza to win going away.

6-Month Title Defense Rule Overlooked

NBA Assured by 'Sugar', Patterson They'll Fight in '59

New York —(AP)—Big money-making champions don't have to worry any more about the six months title defense rule. The National Boxing association today just about gave the boot to the often disregarded regulation.

The NBA's executive committee said heavy taxation had made it virtually impossible for the major attractions like middleweight champion "Sugar" Ray Robinson and heavyweight king Floyd Patterson to hold strictly to the code.

It made the point at a Thursday meeting in which it accepted assurances from both Robinson and Patterson that they intended to defend their crown this year.

May or June

Robinson said he would by May or June (probably against Carmen Basilio) and Patterson's manager, Gus D'Amato, said Floyd would defend his crown by April 15 or face loss of the title. He hasn't had a title fight since Nov. 6, 1957.

Robinson's last title fight was last March 25, when he regained the crown from Basilio. Patterson isn't due for a title defense under the outmoded rule until Feb. 18. He stopped Texas Roy Harris in Los Angeles Aug. 18.

'Nonie' Foley To Bid for Olympic Berth

Madison —(AP)—A 19-year-old University of Wisconsin coed will pack away her books next week and head for the snowy slopes of Colorado to try out for the United States Olympic ski team.

Nora "Nonie" Foley, from Houghton in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, has decided to interrupt her art history studies temporarily to make a bid for this country's ski squad that will compete in the winter Olympics in Squaw Valley, California in 1960.

"I'm really looking forward to it," the blond, 5-foot, 2-inch ski wizard said today. "I've got that enthusiasm again."

In 1957, the miss from Michigan captured the national women's slalom title. She reached the peak two years ago when she competed with the U.S. women's ski team in Austria during the international championships.

Gets Pep Talk From Jones

Buchholz Loses Fight, Determination, Match

Adelaide —(AP)—Earl Buchholz, of St. Louis, acclaimed the world's outstanding junior, became the first major casualty of the Australian National Tennis championship today.

And then in a fit of depression said he may quit the game.

Later, after cooling off a bit, he amended the threat to say "I would like to knock off for six months and get back in the right frame of mind."

The unpredictable, 18-year-old Missourian, listless and lacking in fire, fell before Neil Gibson, unranked Australian in a second-round match. The score was 6-6, 6-4, 6-1.

A Miserable Day

It was a miserable day for the lean crewcut American. He accidentally cracked his best two rackets. He served 34 double-faults. He held his violent temper, but in doing so apparently lost his fight and determination.

At the intermission, trailing

Two Sets to One, Buchholz Summoned From the Dressing Room to the Stands and Given a Pep Talk by Perry Jones, Captain of the United States Davis Cup Team

Jones reminded Buchholz of his obligation to the U. S. which spent about $5,000 to send the boy to Australia and exhorted him "don't think of yourself. Think of the association. St. Louis and your family back home."

Buchholz told Jones that he had no heart for the game and perhaps he should give it up.

Jones counseled that a rest might do Buchholz good, that he must conquer this temper and cultivate a better attitude before he can reach greatness.

Buchholz plans to continue in the junior tournament.

The defeat of Buchholz left three members of the U.S. Davis cup team still in the fight—Alex Olmedo, Barry MacKay and Chris Crawford.

Green Bay — Green Bay police today were seeking a holdup man generally described as tall, slim and unkempt, who obtained approximately $250 at gunpoint from a clerk at the Valley Motel, Green Bay, just before 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Another noticeable feature was a large crease across his forehead.

The weapon held by the man with only its barrel showing over the high desk in the motel office was thought to be a pistol smaller than .38 caliber.

Airport, Bridge Loom as Problems

Assessor Pierre Traces Coming, Past Difficulties of His Office

Assessor John A. Pierre gave council finance committee Thursday a rare recitation of normally unpublished problems of assessment.

Some are current, some out of the past. Chief among the current problems are these, he said:

1. What to do about property values of the new homes and industries building up around Outagamie county airport. He said he's been informed there is one building in violation of height restrictions, and that a plane recently missed the port and landed on Glendale avenue. What, he asked, will that do to property values?

2. Water power for industry. "I have a dam in the industrial flats which the owner would gladly give you or anyone. At one time water power was worth $90 a horsepower plus the dam construction cost. Now, it's cheaper to get the power from the power company."

3. The east end of College avenue at the new high level bridge. Quite a few of the homes, he said, are older, luxury homes and how to assess them in light of the bridge construction may cost the city a lot in assessment.

4. Annexations. These require hiking of values since they almost always immediately are on the real estate market for upwards of $1,600 a lot. They also require creation of new books and files and detailed, scaled maps.

These problems of the past were solved, he said, without a sharp break in the steady rising assessment curve:

1. The failure of Clerk-Controller Robert Mayes in 1952 to report the city's assessed value to the state until after the state had set its equalized value. "The supervisors (of assessment) had to use the same assessment figures from the year before. I know it sure knocked the bottom out of my equalized figures."

2. Collapse of industries. "A few years back a paper mill shut down. The same year Eagle Manufacturing company closed. The same year Four - Wheel Drive closed. Three million dollars was removed from the rolls, but I still showed an increase what with new building and my policy of constantly keeping values as uniform as possible."

"One of the plants sold for as low as $100,000 and in a few years time it was re-sold for $69,000. One plant sold old machinery for less than $100,000. One plant with a $300,000 personal property value on the rolls sold complete for $35,000 and the next year was reduced to zero, Pierre said.

"What," he asked, "is value? What is a dollar worth in the appraisal field? Your experts are in court. Even they go wrong in their ideas of value."

Pierre called attention to an increase in assessment from $69 million to $112 million in the last eight years, despite these kind of problems and a short 10-week period after May 1 in which he and his part-time staff must work.

Fraud of Record
He said he was proud that of 6,432 postcards sent last year telling property owners of advances in their assessments only 418 resulted in inquiries by telephone or visits to his office. And only a handful went to the board of review, none deciding ultimately to continue a protest.

He admitted he and his men make mistakes and that in the past assessors have not had too good public relations. He said he intends to begin accepting speaking dates before service clubs.

Pierre also said he is proud of his record of keeping all categories of property on a uniform level of assessment. He said the adjustment required when the state made mass appraisals in Outagamie county in 1958 was the second lowest of all assessors, the only one lower was in a community which had undergone reassessment the year before.

The assessor said he cannot answer for state equalized figures but he knows they included this year about 50 homes, quite a bit of improvement projects by the city, a mercantile establishment and other properties which he will put on the roll for the first time in August.

Jury Declares Driver Guilty Of Negligence

Not Criminally So, It Decides In Sues Death

Oshkosh — A coroner's jury Thursday afternoon declared Miss Judy Whitpan, 20, 415 Fourth avenue, Neenah, negligent but not criminally so in the death of John Sues, 49, 403 Cleveland street, Menasha, as the result of an accident early last Saturday morning.

Set Arraignment For Judy Whitpan

Oshkosh — Miss Judy Whitpan, 20, 415 W. Fourth avenue, Neenah, will be arraigned before Municipal Judge S. J. Luchinger at 10 a.m. Jan. 29 on a charge of driving without a license, Dist. Atty. Jack Steinhilber said today. Marvyn Schinke, Appleton, will be sentenced the same day on the charge of allowing an unlicensed person to drive his vehicle. He already has pleaded guilty.

a town road in the town of Menasha.

Sheriff's deputies Erwin Hardtke and Neil Cowling described the site of the accident. The Sues car was coming to a stop at the intersection of the town road and Highway 114 when it was struck.

Forgot to Clear Till

Mrs. Sues, who testified from a wheel chair, said she and her husband were returning home after closing their tavern at the intersection of Highway 114 and 10. She said they swung back to return to the tavern because they forgot to clear the till. Mrs. Sues testified that she was slowing down for the intersection when she saw the oncoming car and "felt it wouldn't make the curve."

Miss Whitpan was driving a car owned by Marvin Schinke, Appleton, who has pleaded guilty of allowing an unlicensed person to drive his vehicle. Sentencing had been deferred by Judge S. J. Luchinger until after the inquest.

Estimates Speed

Schinke testified that he and Miss Whitpan had been at a teenage bar about five miles east of the accident site from 8:45 p.m. to closing and were returning to Neenah when the accident occurred. He estimated the speed of the car at about 45 miles per hour. Traffic police investigating the accident said the car's speedometer wasn't working.

Exchange Places

Both Schinke and Miss Whitpan testified they had four or five glasses of beer during the evening but investigating officers said neither appeared to be intoxicated.

Miss Whitpan said she and Schinke exchanged places after the accident but admitted she was driving when traffic police questioned them. She said she didn't remember braking the car but skid marks indicated she had.

To Your Good Health

Most of Body Weight Water, Pint a Day Lost by Breathing

By Joseph G. Molner, M. D.

"Dear Dr. Molner: How long does it take for a glass of water to pass through the body?" — Mrs. J.C.B.

This short question needs a long answer.

About 65 to 70 per cent of the body weight is water. A 150-pound man has about 50 quarts, so you can see that there wouldn't be much left of the old frame if we really dried it out. (In fact, somebody once figured that the minerals in a human body would be worth about 97 cents, but I understand that the value is now about $1.50.)

Disposal Methods

We likewise dispose of water in more ways than many have occurred to you. True, we will lose about 1 1/2 quarts as urine in an average 24 hours, and another 5 ounces (average) in the stool.

But we will lose a full pint as perspiration, and naturally more in hot weather. (You have doubtless noted that by urines becomes darker in hot weather, since it is not as dilute, more water having been lost through perspiration.) In cold weather — if we are outside and not warmly dressed — there is little perspiration, and urination can increase, sometimes almost annoyingly.

Besides all this, we lose a pint of water a day just by breathing — just blowing on your glasses gives enough moisture to polish them. Think how much moisture is lost in the thousands of times you breathe every day.

Not all of this water enters the body as drinking water.

Army Locomotive Given to Museum In Green Bay

Green Bay — The last of the 1917 "General Pershing" army locomotives is on its way to the National Railroad museum — as a gift from the Republic of Korea.

The locomotive was one of 150 specially designed for service with the AEF in France. Each bore a brass plate with four stars and the general's name. Of the 150, 149 went to France, the other stayed at home — temporarily.

It's the one that missed World war I that during the next 40 years possibly saw more action than the other 149 put together, with service in the Philippines, World war II and Korea.

The department of defense underwrote its return from Pusan "as a contribution to a worthy enterprise of historical significance."

Arrival time at San Francisco is Jan. 23, with the 6th Continental Army Command scheduling a welcome ceremony.

Cohen said he had made a sincere effort during his lifetime to provide for his son. Cohen was 67 when he died.

South Seas Inspire Pahu Lava

AP Newsfeature

One reason it pays to be able to sew your own clothes is that often you can stitch up a copy of some gay new fashion you see in the movies or at the theater.

Right now there seems to be much attention to South Seas movies, which offer some colorful ideas in summer fashions easy to make at home. Take, for instance, the outfit called "Pahu Lava" worn by an enchanting young Tahitian beauty named Ramine in a current South Seas Cinerama production.

Freely translated, the Pahu is a strapless chemise worn with the traditional Pareu, or sarong, Ramine says. It's easy to make such an outfit, and local sewing center experts tell how it's done.

You'll need about three yards of the brightest cotton print you can find, preferably in a 36-inch width. Cut a piece about 38 inches long, leaving a piece about 70 inches long. The shorter piece will be used for the Pahu, or chemise. (The 38-inch measurement is about average — larger figures require more.) The longer piece is for the Pareu or sarong.

Directions
To make the Pahu, fold the shorter piece in half crosswise, so that raw edges meet. This piece will be wrapped around the body, with selvages at bust and hemline. Make casing in the top for elastic. Stitch edges together to a point eight inches down from the top, leaving rest of the slit open. Hem raw edges. Thread elastic through top casing and gather to fit under the arms.

This Pahu will be as long as the width of the fabric. The woman of average height will find that a 36-inch measurement will reach from the chest to the knees. Tall women may need a wider fabric.

To make the Pareu, or sarong, simply hem the raw edges of the longer piece of fabric. It may then be wrapped around the waist and worn as a skirt, worn around the shoulders as a cape or draped into a long floating panel to conceal the side slit of the Pahu.

The outfit is perfect for beach wear, over a bathing suit, or for backyard entertaining at home.

Columnist Lauds Eisenhower for Earnest Approach

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington — President Eisenhower may have thought last Friday he was addressing the most important audience in the nation when he talked to both houses of congress, but he was mistaken. His audience at a 50th anniversary celebration of the National Press club of Washington was really more important.

For, in his address to the congress, the president revealed the national and international policies of his administration. To the press he revealed Dwight Eisenhower—the man, the soldier, and the chief executive of the most powerful government in the free world. He spoke to far more newspapermen than are eligible to attend his usual press conferences at the White House.

Contrary to the insidious propaganda that has in recent months been spread in America, Eisenhower was no invalid standing before the members of the press, nor an individual, as sometimes pictured, indifferent to the cares of his office. He was a chief executive of erect bearing whose ruddy face, alertness and directness of speech gave an even better impression of health and vigor than six years ago when he was inaugurated.

Accounts of W W II

When the president was asked by the newsmen to do a bit of reminiscence about his work as head of the allied armies in World War II, he did so with characteristic modesty. He gave credit to his associate commanders and to his staff.

Looking back to those fateful days of the war when the lives of millions of American and allied soldiers depended upon the wisdom and judgment of the commanders, one wonders why today there are even a few misguided persons writing for the press or making partisan speeches who would question for a moment the fidelity to his job which Eisenhower as a man of military tradition gives to the constitutional office to which he is bound by oath to serve faithfully.

Arguments on public policy involve natural differences of opinion, and there is justification for sharp debate on issues and principles. But respect must be given to the chief executive as a person, especially when he is honestly trying to carry out the duties of his office.

Politics sometimes regrettably becomes intensely personal, but no man in the White House in the memory of this correspondent has been subjected more to the sniping barbs of politically minded individuals than Eisenhower.

Rank High in History

As a president, Eisenhower will rank high in history, not because he has succeeded in every policy but because he has dealt earnestly and sincerely with some of the most frustrating problems that ever faced chief executive in our history. Even as he spoke at the National Press club, he was not able to give off-the-cuff the detailed or comprehensive answers which some of the newsmen wanted. But no president can enunciate policies in impromptu fashion. He can explain their background but in a cold war, with every word that a president says cabled immediately around the world, it becomes necessary to be both cautious and restrained.

Some day the American people will have to face up to the fact that they must adopt a cabinet system of government as an integral part of the national legislature so that leadership may come from the ranks of the legislators of experience, as in the parliamentary systems abroad. But until that time comes, popular personalities without experience or background in governmental affairs will intermittently be elected to the presidency, and it is to be hoped they will all have the common sense, the quiet dignity and honesty of purpose that Eisenhower has exhibited in his career both as a soldier and chief executive.

Use of Glass Block Panel to divide the facilities of the bathroom is an attractive addition which enhances the design of this functional room. Since bathroom fixtures are against the wall, a single partition like this one easily can be placed to give added privacy with a minimum of trouble and construction.

Bathroom Divider

Attractive Partition Adds to Room Privacy

Almost any bathroom, old or new, can be departmentalized in one day with a hand-sawn glass block panel. You can do-it-yourself with a minimum of effort and achieve really professional results.

Separation of the bathroom components allows for added privacy and eliminates that bunched-together look of too many facilities in too small an area.

Simple Assembly

The only tools needed are a hammer and saw. The frame is constructed from one-by-sixes, and one-half inch quarter-round moulding. That's all. The panel itself is glass block with a simple bolt assembly which secures the stacked blocks in place.

Once you have determined the size of glass block you wish to use (normally either 8 inches or 12 inches) simply nail the one-by-sixes together into a frame bolted to the floor and-or wall, and then nail the moulding 1/4 of an inch from one inside edge. Then begin by putting on the first row of glass block.

Several Designs

As each row of blocks is added, the fittings are placed between the block. The small decorative rosettes are turned tightly on the threaded ends of the slender aluminum rods, holding the blocks together.

On the next-to-last row, the fittings are not laid down, but rather inserted after the final row has been placed in position. The panel is finished by nailing moulding on the other side to hold the block securely in position.

Several block designs, ranging from clear to translucent patterns, offer varying degrees of privacy with high daylight transmission.

Here's the Answer

Question: I want to put down asphalt tile on a concrete floor. The floor has always seemed perfectly level, but in checking it the other day I discovered that it slants a little in one direction. Will this have any effect on the tile?

Answer: The slanting of the concrete floor will in no way impair the effectiveness of the job. If the adhesive and tiles are put down properly, they will remain in place just as long as on a slanted floor as on one that is perfectly level. However, it is important that the concrete be fairly smooth.

An irregularity at some point may later cause the tiles in that particular area to crack and break.

Question: Is it safe to remove old paint from the outside of a wooden house with a blow torch?

Answer: Not for you it isn't. Question: I have a table saw which I bought about a year ago. The rip fence on it has a handle which locks in place when it is pushed downward. Lately I notice that, after the handle presumably is locked, there is a little play in it...not much, maybe a 32nd of an inch...but enough so that making a perfect rip cut is somewhat difficult. Can this be fixed?

Answer: When a rip fence on a table saw has some play in it, there is more to it than the failure to get an accurate cut. If it moves at all while a piece of wood is being cut,

Match Walls to Rich Rug Colors

Colored Floors Consistent With Good Decorating, Experts Assert

BY VIVIAN BROWN

AP Newsfeatures Writer

Will you be doomed to light colored walls if you go along with the new rich carpet colors?

Carpet and paint experts say not, that colored floors and walls are now consistent with good decorating, and that the wide choice of wall hues available help accentuate the beauty of these high-interesting to play with color than to settle for neutral wall backgrounds.

Olive green, mustard and bronze carpets are on the rise in popularity, but should not deter one from finding a flattering complement in wall paint. Light grayed turquoise could be a lovely adjunct to these new carpet hues. When you get bored with that shade, for a small investment you can give the entire room a new look by painting the walls a light plum or a terra-cotta. Patterned carpets, popular because they do not show spots, lend themselves to fanciful shades of wall decor.

Warm Colors Popular

The warmer pink tone that this year has given a glow to beige, number one in popularity for many years, offers possibilities for a number of wall paint tones from soft blue or sage green to warm coral, depending on other furnishings in the room and your point of view on colorful decor.

Gray has been warmed up for floor coverings, also, with newer tones adopting a warm mauve cast, rather than the standard cold steel gray. Yellow-gold, olive green or rich violet paint tones are all possibilities for walls.

One color on the wing in floor coverings is teal blue, a rich Oriental blue with green. Ideally suited to russet-toned or bronze walls. More dramatic types might prefer walls in orange persimmon as a startling contrast.

Tweedy mixtures in carpets are especially popular in homes dominated by small children. The season's shock colors — orange and red, orange and gold, blue and green or blue and purple may be flattered by a variety of wall paints from the light mulberry or yellow gold to pure bright blue or turquoise.

Harmonious effects are important when strong colors are employed so it is wise to choose the carpet first, and decide on the wall color last; as paint is available in a limitless range to harmonize with any carpet color. One should keep in mind, however, that there is a big difference between the carpet swatch and the rug area, and color will be intensified when seen in the larger patch. It's a good idea to choose your paint in a hue that is deeper in tone than that of the carpeting if you plan to have matching floors and walls as a rug will take on depth dimension after it is put on the floor.

The new trend in floor colors offers unlimited opportunity for individuality in decor, which may be accomplished by the paint tone you choose, and other patterns in the room. Neutral shades have a tendency to sameness that deprives a room of personality, unless one is fortunate enough to have enough decorating aplomb to add just the right color accent to liven up the area.

Gray has been warmed up for floor coverings, also, with newer tones adopting a warm mauve cast, rather than the standard cold steel gray. Yellow-gold, olive green or rich violet paint tones are all possibilities for walls.

Need Stable Dollar As Goal for U. S.

BY SYLVIA PORTER

With a single sentence in his state of the union message, President Eisenhower last week set the stage for congressional debate on one of the great economic questions of this year and in fact, of the postwar era — whether you and I should demand that protection of our dollar's buying power be a prime specific goal of national policy.

Today, through the employment act of 1946 we declare that the three major economic goals of our country are maximum employment, production, and purchasing power.

But, today there is no law on our books which says that reasonable stability of prices — reasonable safeguarding of the dollar's value — is an objective of policy.

Today there is no law which declares it is the responsibility of the federal government to promote this stability.

Yet, today one of the great est threats to our dollar is a spreading psychology of inflation — a growing belief among millions who have lived through year after year of rising prices that the price upsurges of the past will be repeated in the future, and that nothing can be done or will be done to keep the dollar's value from dwindling.

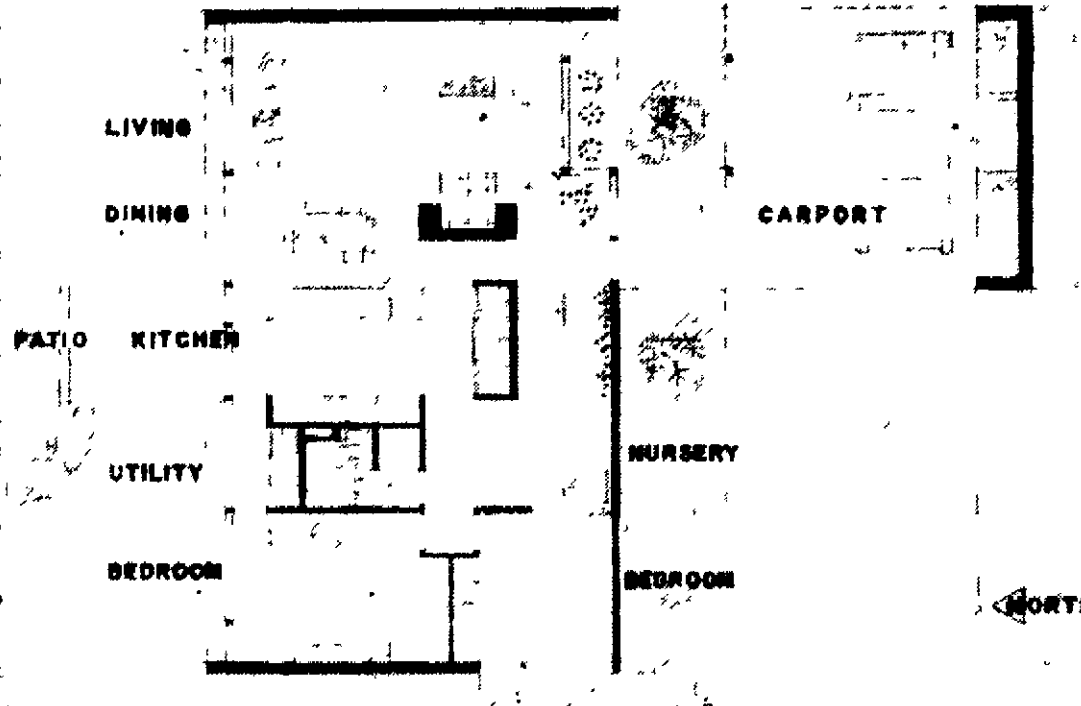

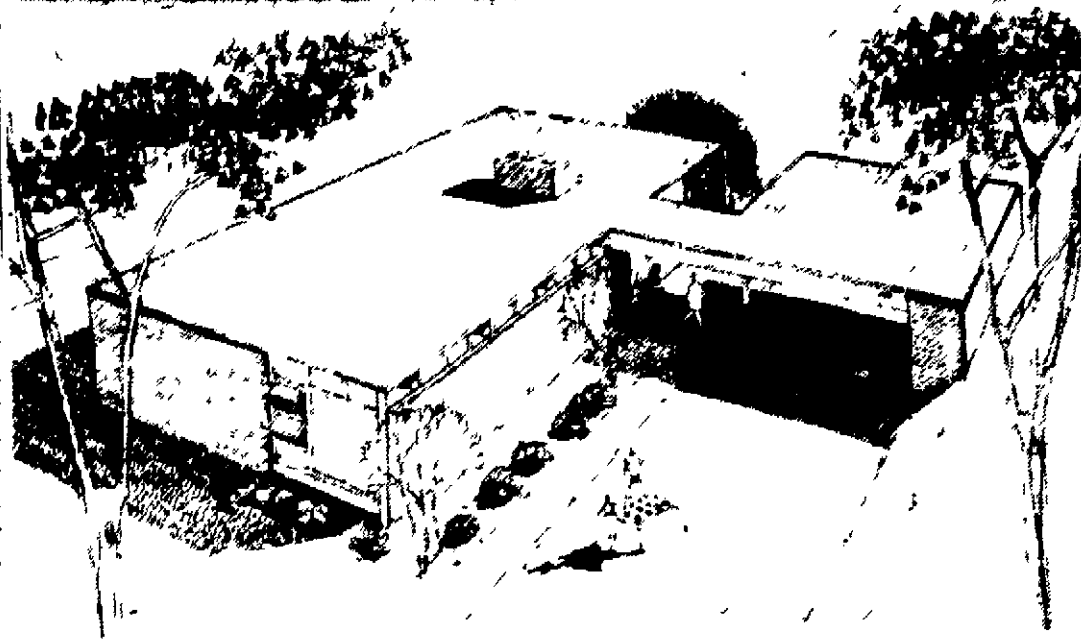

In recognition of this dangerous psychology, responsible authorities have for months been urging the administration and congress to do more about inflation than view with alarm. The day after the November elections I reported the new heavily Democratic congress would be the first in history to tackle the problem of inflation in peacetime and that it would debate amending the employment act to add reasonable price stability as a fourth national economic goal.

Now President Eisenhower has put it officially on the line.

Will Protect. "I shall," he said in his state of the union message, ask congress to amend the employment act of 1946 to make it clear that government intends to use all appropriate means to protect the buying power of the dollar.

In that one sentence is the economic heart of this message and the ones to come.

Everything he will say about a balanced budget, tax reform, farm legislation, spending cuts, etc., etc., will come down to this question to you: Do you really care enough about price stability to make it a key goal of your nation?

This is the Design of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Van Housen, North Oaks, Minn., which won first place in the St. Paul, Minn., Jaycees' home beautiful contest. The house was designed by Van Housen who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Corwin Van Housen, 401 W. Reid drive.

Of course, saying that the dollar's buying power should be protected and maintained won't protect and maintain it. But the debate about price stability will, in itself, be valuable because it will force your attention to the causes of inflation.

The arguments themselves will impress upon you consciousness the fact that in this era, the tendency is for prices to rise during phases of expansion, but not to fall during cycles of recession.

The pros and cons of the legislation will compel you to realize that if we're not to cure inflation by encouraging business slumps we had better figure out better ways to control our own economic system.

Restrain Spiral. And if the goal is written into law the warning will be clear to powers in business and in labor that if the leap frog of prices and wages continues congress will take positive steps to restrain the spiral.

The background will be created against which congress can consider new restrictions on monopolies in business and labor, the creation of watchdog commissions to report to the nation on inflationary price wage moves.

The country will be prepared for — will be ready for — moves that will develop and coordinate economic and monetary policies at the national level so that expansion is encouraged, inflation is discouraged.

There will be plenty of opposition to the amendment — that's already clear. At my opponents fear that once price stability is put on the books as a policy goal some in government will try to make it the goal will try to place it ahead of maximum employment production income.

Others fear the amendment will be used as an excuse for composition of dreaded direct controls over prices and wages.

Neither fear convinces me. As a nation we made it obvious that if the choice is between maximum employment production income and a sta-

Van Housen Home in Minnesota Gets First Place in House Beautiful Race

The North Oaks, Minn., home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Van Housen, North Oaks, Minn., which won first place in the St. Paul, Minn., Jaycees' home beautiful contest. The house was designed by Van Housen who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Corwin Van Housen, 401 W. Reid drive.

Completed a year ago, the home was designed by Van Housen. It was described as a fine piece of contemporary art by one of the judges.

Of the Van Housen home, Myron Kehne architect, said "If anyone feels that modern architecture is necessarily cold he should examine this home. The warm brick, the wood decking and laminated beams, the honest use of materials frankly expressed give the home more real luxury potential than many much more expensive residences."

Open planning is followed throughout its 1,340 square foot interior with only the bedrooms and bath equipped with doors. The house is situated on two acres, with 350 feet of lakeshore. Its entire length at the rear, both upstairs and in the basement is spanned by Thermopane windows. The effect is a glass wall.

Mrs. Van Housen is fond of her kitchen which is equipped with stainless steel sinks, countertop electric range and able doll. We'll take the maximum employment production income. No one who believes in this system wants peace time price and wage controls. The amendment would be an invitation to the best minds in our land to find the solutions to the control of inflation in a period of prosperity. We can do it. We've conquered bigger problems than this.

New Paints to Aid Do-It-Yourselfers

One Type Leaves Finish Which Can be Used as Home Blackboard

BY ANDREW C. LANG

New paints are emerging from the laboratories in a steady stream, a large percentage of them aimed specifically at the do-it-yourself home owner.

It's a wise purchaser indeed who looks over his dealer's entire stock of paints and finishes before he makes his decision. A look-see is in order even if a visit has been made to the same store a week or two earlier. There's always a chance that the researchers will have come up with something that may fit a particular paint problem a little more specifically.

Hard Finish. One of the unusual paints that seems to be making a hit in homes where there are small children is one that leaves a hard green or black slate finish. It can be written on with chalk or crayon and the writing easily erased with a regular blackboard eraser or damp rag. The color simulates the "bite" and writing qualities of slate and can be applied to wood, plaster, metal, composition board or any other surface.

Glass can be frosted with (what did you expect?) a glass-frosting paint. It allows the light to come through yet gives complete privacy. The paint is easy to apply and quick to dry and achieves an elastic, opaque finish that withstands scrubbing and extremes of temperature.

For a "baked-on" effect, there is a liquid porcelain enamel, especially suitable for use on washing machines, refrigerators, dryers and similar home appliances. It now is available in many colors so that it can be used for transforming white into a sunny shade as well as for a mere refinishing job. This enamel is said to be extra long-wearing, designed to withstand the onslaughts of boiling water, grease, steam, fumes and alcohol.

Once the exclusive province of gymnasium and other heavy-duty floors, a triple-duty varnish is available for the home. It is excellent for floors that get extra-hard wear from children's boots, galoshes, etc.

While most radiators and ranges can be finished with ordinary paint, a much better result will be obtained with a special paint that can take temperatures of several hundred degrees Fahrenheit without peeling or cracking.

Paint Problem. No matter what the paint problem, the chances are that some manufacturer has put out a product that will make your task easier.

Make better use of area space at walls and ceilings if rooms are small. Do you need that coffee table? Is that magazine rack necessary. Give yourself more floor space, and your room will look larger.

Resist the temptation to put another patterned piece in the room, if you already have one or more in upholstery fabric, slip cover or draperies.

If your home lacks charm in spite of all your efforts ask yourself. Is it too bare to decision. A look-see is in order even if a visit has been made to the same store a week or two earlier. There's always a chance that the researchers will have come up with something that may fit a particular paint problem a little more specifically.

Keep the refrigerator tidy, and you'll have more room at your disposal. Consolidate the leftover peas, carrots and green beans that are going into a stew. Choose deeper storage dishes. Grind up the stale bread crumbs and put in a jar.

Sullivan Will Sponsor Bill to Rebuild Veterans Housing Fund

Kaukauna Assembly Also Plans to Back Measure to Hike School Aid

Kaukauna — Second district assemblyman William T. Sullivan stated he plans to sponsor a bill in the next session of the legislature to rebuild the veterans housing fund and make loans available to veterans in the counties now overdrawn, but with requests for additional loans.

Outagamie county was one of 12 counties restricted for future loans in 1952. By 1957, 32 counties were closed for additional loans and the legislature amended the laws so as additional funds were made available, proper credits were given to the closed counties.

To date 16 of these closed counties have been reopened for additional loans up to the amount of funds allocated to them, stated Sullivan. At the present rate of repayment on loans, it is estimated Outagamie county will not have additional funds to loan until June, 1960.

A second bill to be actively supported by Sullivan will be a measure to substantially increase state aid to vocational schools. In the 1957 legislature, a very slight increase was granted, the first since 1943.

The interim education committee has recommended to the legislative council the state aid be increased from $800,000 to $1,785,000 annually, said the assemblyman.

The legislative council has accepted the recommendation of the committee and the increased appropriation would greatly benefit the Appleton, Kaukauna and Kimberly Vocational schools, according to Sullivan.

A third bill Sullivan plans to sponsor or support is a bill to return bounties on foxes and coyotes in Wisconsin. Sportsmen agree these animals destroy many upland game birds, said the assemblyman, and hunting is a great asset to our state.

We don't want to do anything to destroy the resources of the northern part of the state particularly when recreation, including hunting and fishing, is the prime industry.

Second Aspirant Seeks 2nd Ward Aldermanic Post

Kaukauna — The first possibility of a race in the spring election developed Thursday when Frank Merckx, 31, 1812 Florence street, took out nomination papers at the city clerk's office for the post of Second ward alderman.

Merckx has never tried for public office before. He is an employee of the Thilmany Pulp and Paper company and seeks the post currently held by Jewell Toms. Toms took out papers earlier this week.

Arnold Vanderloop, 225 Maria street, took out nomination papers for reelection to the First ward aldermanic post. Vander Loop, an employee of the Kaukauna Machine and Foundry division of Giddings and Lewis, is seeking his second term in office.

Dutchmen Fall Behind Early in 52-41 Decision

Little Chute — Falling behind early in the game, the St. John High school junior varsity team lost a 52 to 41 decision to Central Catholic at Marinette Thursday night.

The loss was only the fourth of the season against nine wins for the Dutchmen. Against Fox Valley Catholic conference foes the Dutchmen are 3-2.

Bill Kieff paced the Shamrocks to the victory by netting 22 points on 10 field goals and a pair of free throws.

Central took a 13 to 8 lead at the end of the first period and was never headed as they had a point advantage in every quarter.

At halftime the score was 27 to 21 but the winners widened the gap by hitting nine in the third period and 16 in the fourth. St. John had only five markers in the third frame and came back with 15 in the final stanza.

Harland Hietpas connected for 18 points to lead St. John. Joe Verkuilen was next in line with 10.

Open House Sunday will mark the completion of additions at the Little Chute State grade school. Above is one of the six new classrooms dominated by the wall of windows. Below is the stage in the multi-purpose room. The addition cost $200,000. The school will be open for inspection from 1 to 4 p.m.

Open House Sunday At School Addition

Six Classroom Structure to be Shown To Public, Many Modern Facilities

Little Chute — Open house will be conducted from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday at the new $200,000 addition to the Little Chute state graded school.

Major work on the addition which includes six classrooms, was completed in September and finishing touches were added in the last three months.

The entire school building is only a little better than three years old, giving the village up to date modern grade facilities. The school is the only public one in the village as the majority of students attend St. John Grade and High school.

Request Kindergarten

The original part of the building was built for $70,000 in the summer of 1955 and was first used for the 1955-56 school term. Because of a high influx of first grade pupils and a request from many parents for kindergarten facilities it was necessary to build the addition.

Six modern classrooms comprise the major part of the addition. Each is painted in soft decorator colors and finished off in light woodwork. Ample cabinet, cupboard and display room is available in each room.

One feature of the classrooms is the individual chair-desk arrangement for each pupil. The desks are similar to small tables which give the student a larger working surface on top and additional storage space inside.

All-Purpose Room

The addition also includes an all-purpose room which is rapidly becoming a favorite for extra-curricular activities with the students. The room is an auditorium type with a stage and draw curtains. Because of a low enrollment in upper grades there are no inter-school sports at the school but physical education classes can be conducted in the room. Recently, the school held its first dance for upper grade pupils.

Other rooms in the addition are a library, principal's office, school board office and meeting room and a faculty lounge.

The General contract for the addition was handled by Charles Gambsky Construction, Menasha. Electrical work was done by Sanders Electric, Little Chute; plumbing by R. Wenzel, Appleton; heating and ventilating by Towne, Inc.; Art Mosaic, Green Bay did ceramic tile work and flooring was done by Laydwell of Appleton.
